Plymouth High School

Plymouth, Wisconsin

Dedicated To the One We Love

We, the senior class of Plymouth High School would like to express our feelings about a man who has done much for our school.

He has been very active this year despite the fact that he was recently married. Much of his "free time" has been spent directing the school musicals, the senior class plays, and being advisor to various clubs. The students of Plymouth High School deeply appreciate the time and effort he has given up for us and would like to show this by dedicating the 56th edition of the Quit Qui Oc to Mr. Herbert Stoltenberg.

Hangouts

Where to go? What to do? When to do it? These are three big questions that face Plymouth area students almost every day and most weekends. Most kids complain about not knowing what to do, about how boring it is in town. The following interviews show the need for some type of activity or place where students can go. It also shows why nothing is done. Up until this time students have complained about how boring Plymouth is but nobody tries to do anything about it.

Question#1 Where do you go when you don't have anything to do?
Question#2 Would you like to see a student run youth center?

Pam Grimes — #1 Let me think . . . I don't know what I do.
#2 That would be groovy.

Rose Krueger — #1 Talk to Hanks and Sadie on the phone.
#2 Yah, it's better than stuffing your face with food in front of the tube.

Jean Wieser — #1 Downtown.
#2 Sure.

Steve Kestell — #1 To bed. (smile)
#2 Yah.

Susan Hernandez — #1 Rexall.
#2 Yes.

Gary Ferguson — #1 Go Downtown.
#2 Yah.

Mouth — #1 Can I think about it?
#2 Yah, (erase that)

Inkie — #1 Out.
#2 Yah, I suppose so.

Steve Payne — #1 Play outside.
#2 Yah.

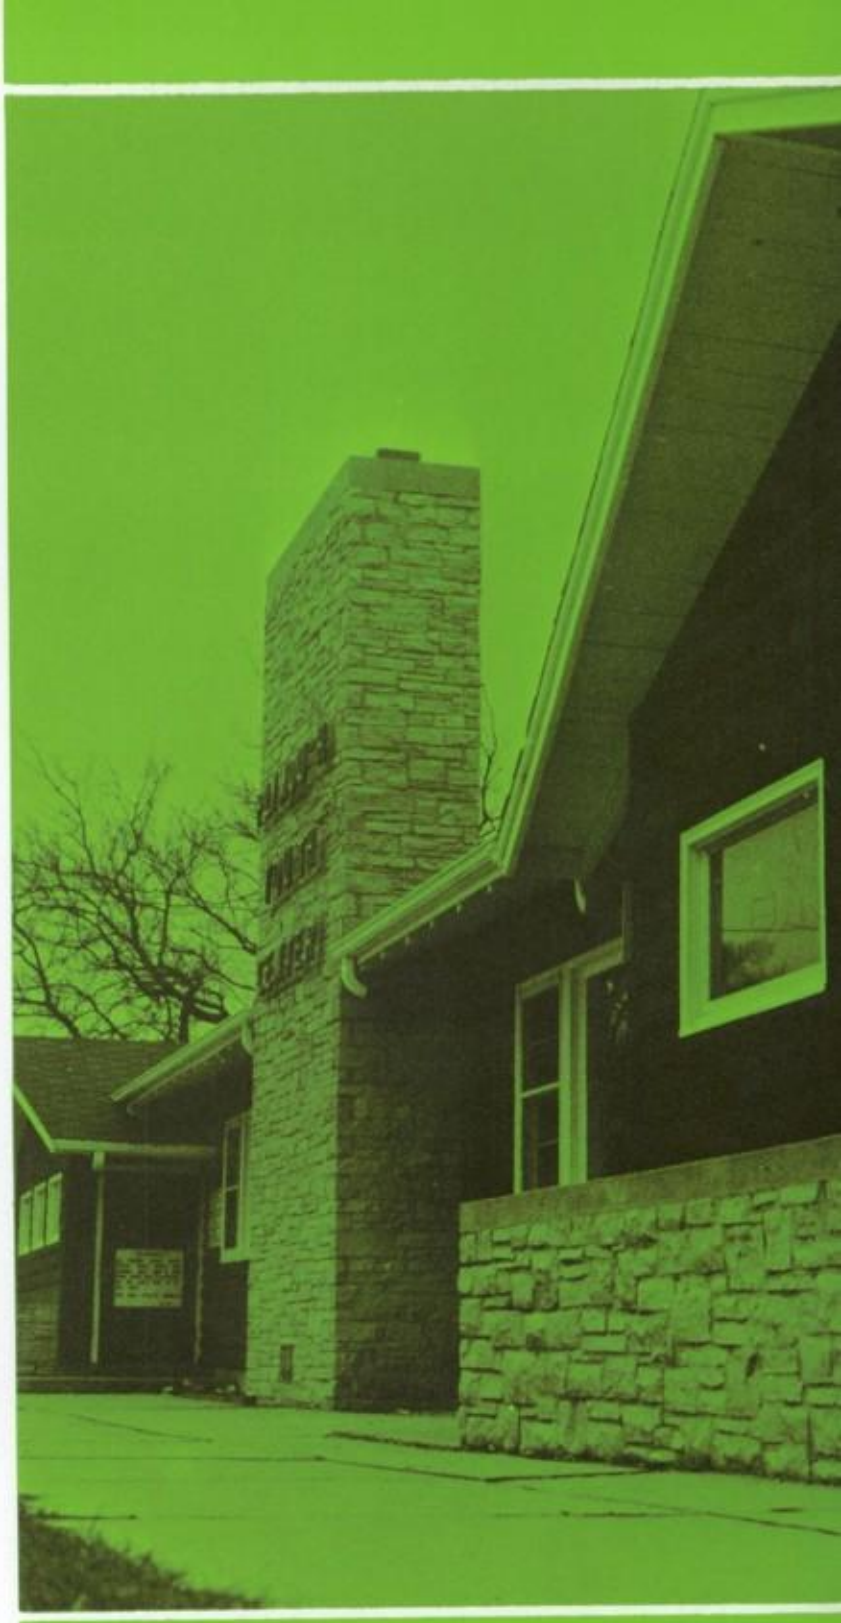
Barry Doebert — #1 Downtown I suppose.
#2 Yah, right.

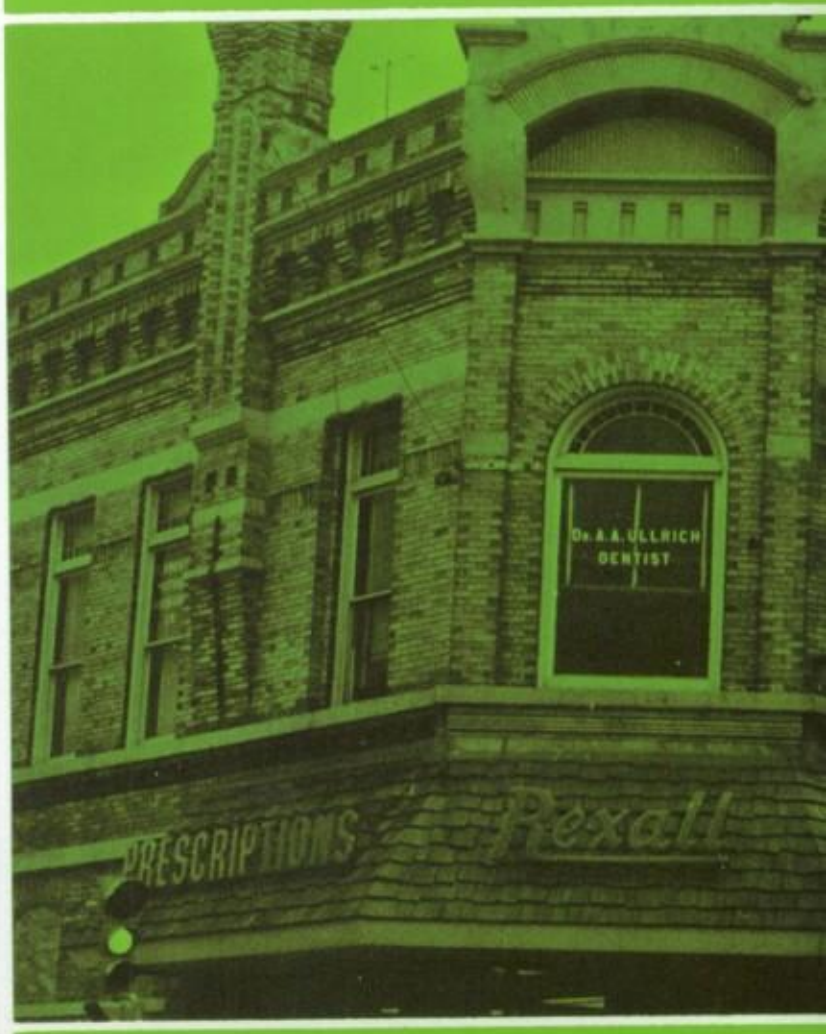
Dave Dipple — #1 Sleep.
#2 Yah.

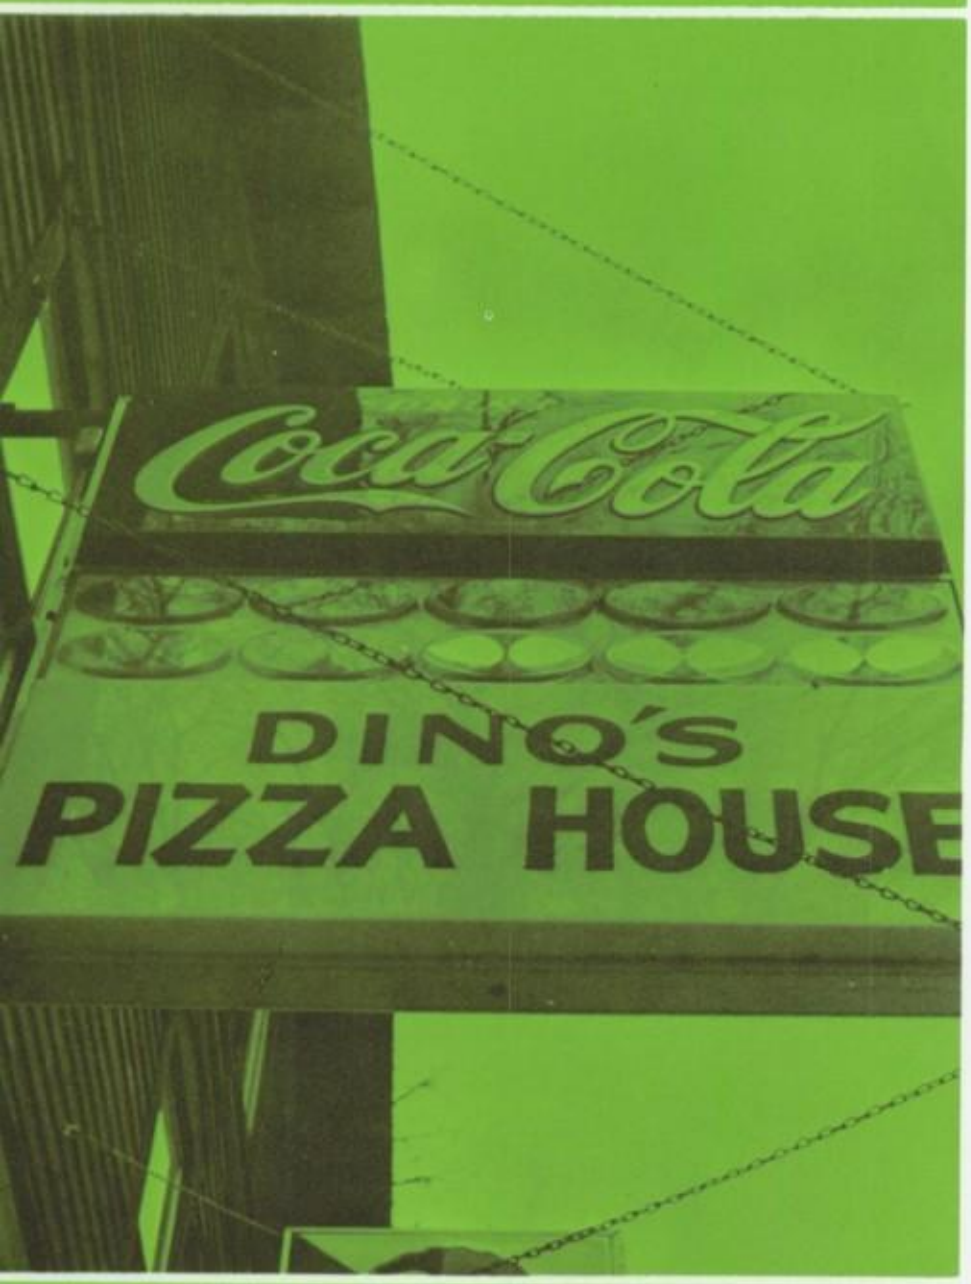
Dick Bennett — #1 Rexall.
#2 (smile)

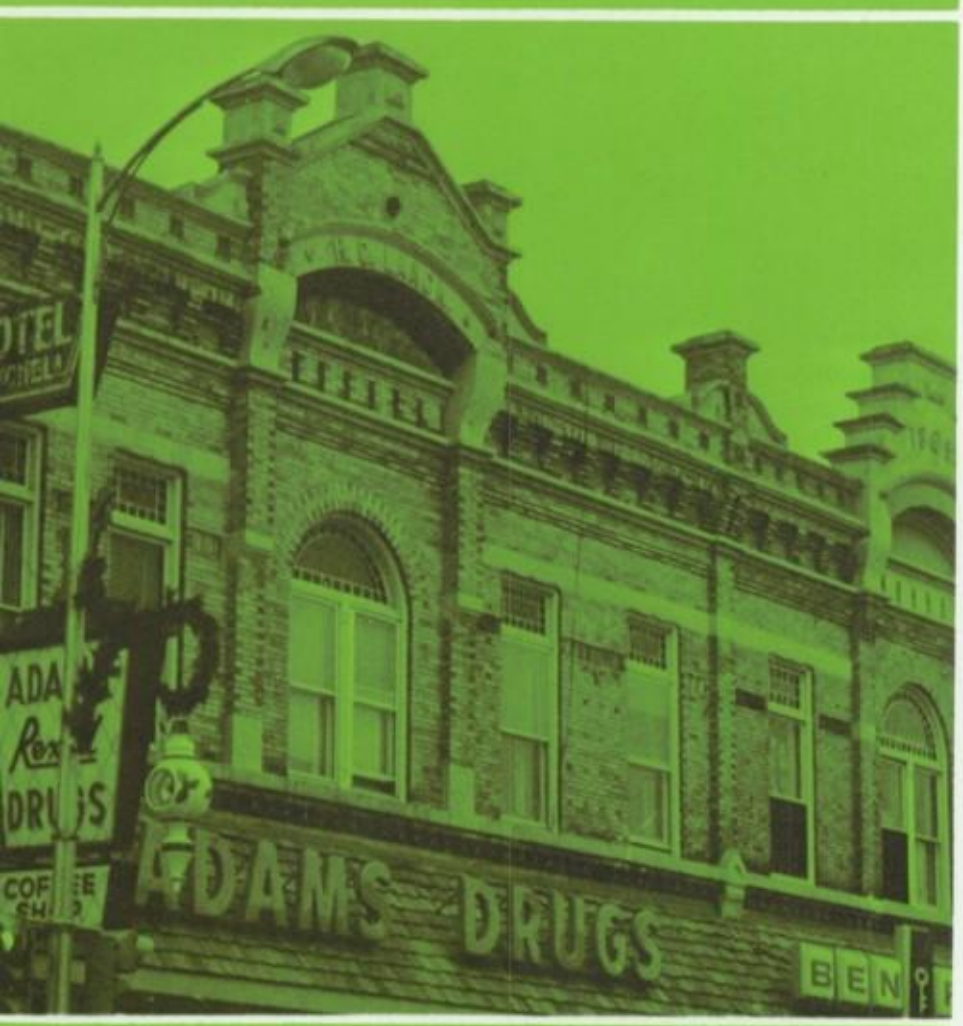
Charmaine — #1 Potty.
#2 Why?

Mark Miller — #1 Lakeland College.
#2









Sandy Born — #1 Downtown.
#2 Yes.

Chris Rice — #1 Out to look for something to do.
#2 Yes.

Linda Marquardt — #1 Stay home and think about Doug.
#2 Depends upon what student it is.

Caroline Menchak — #1 My bedroom.
#2 Sure.

Susan Ploeckelman — #1 For a walk.
#2 No.

Anna Ernst — #1 Go out and find trouble.
#2 I don't go down there.

Cathy Radetski — #1 Going out and find something to do.
#2 Don't care, don't go down there.

Nancy Diels — #1 Down by Kenny's.
#2 I really don't care.

Joann Langkabel — #1 I don't know.
#2 Yes.

Cindy Schaub — #1 Uptown.
#2 No comment.

Jean Prettie — #1 Go look for trouble.
#2 I wouldn't waste my time worrying about it.

Donna Johnson — #1 Downtown.
#2 Yes.

Julie Miskowicz — #1 To my bedroom.
#2 Yes.

Linda Martin — #1 To a study hall.
#2 Depends on what kind of student.

Kris Giese — #1 Go for a walk.
#2 Yes.

Beverly White — #1Try to look for trouble.
#2 Yes.

Bev Schultz — #1 Out to Dave's. We'll find something to do!
#2 Sure.

Diane Weber — #1 I never have any.
#2 No comment.

Lounging Around

During the past two years the seniors have been competing with the faculty in the lounge department. The staff of this years Quit Qui Oc thought it might be interesting to get comments from both teachers and students about what goes on in their counterparts lounge. We received the following comments and exclusive photographs.

Teachers On Senior Lounge

Two questions were asked.
A. What is your opinion of the senior lounge?
B. What do you think goes on there?

Mrs. Scheible:
A. It's a good idea. They have someplace to go.
B. It seems that they don't really know what to do once they get there.

Mr. Brinkman:
A. It's o.k.
B. Just talk. Or am I being naive?

Mr. Stoltenberg:
A. It's a good idea if it's well-run. Sometime it's great to get away from the teachers.
B. I really don't know. I assume talk and drink cokes.

Barb (from office)
A. I think it's a nice idea if they decide to have a tea at Christmas.
B. From this end (intercom) it's sure noisey.

Miss Paul:
A. Fine idea. Seniors should be allowed more privileges.
B. Just talk or listen to records. They really don't have that many facilities to allow them to do much.

Miss Mc Kay:
A. Good idea.
B. I suppose something really awful, right?

Mrs. Stater:
A. It's o.k. They need more privileges.
B. Talk, drink pop, fool around.

Mr. Knutson :
A. Haven't been there.
B. If it had been anything good I would have been there.

Mr. Greenwald:
A. Boy! That's a loaded question.
B. Nothing unusual.

Seniors On Teachers Lounge

Question: What do you think the teachers do in the teachers' lounge?

Carty Butters — Smoke, drink coffee, and chew the fat.

Margie Miley — I've heard that it's the biggest gossip center in town!

Diane Schmidt — Smoke and talk about the kids.

Mary Nowicki — Gossip and slam the kids around. That's where they let their real personalities show through.

Bill Graf — Smoke mostly.

Linda Flunker — Smoke, smoke smoke.

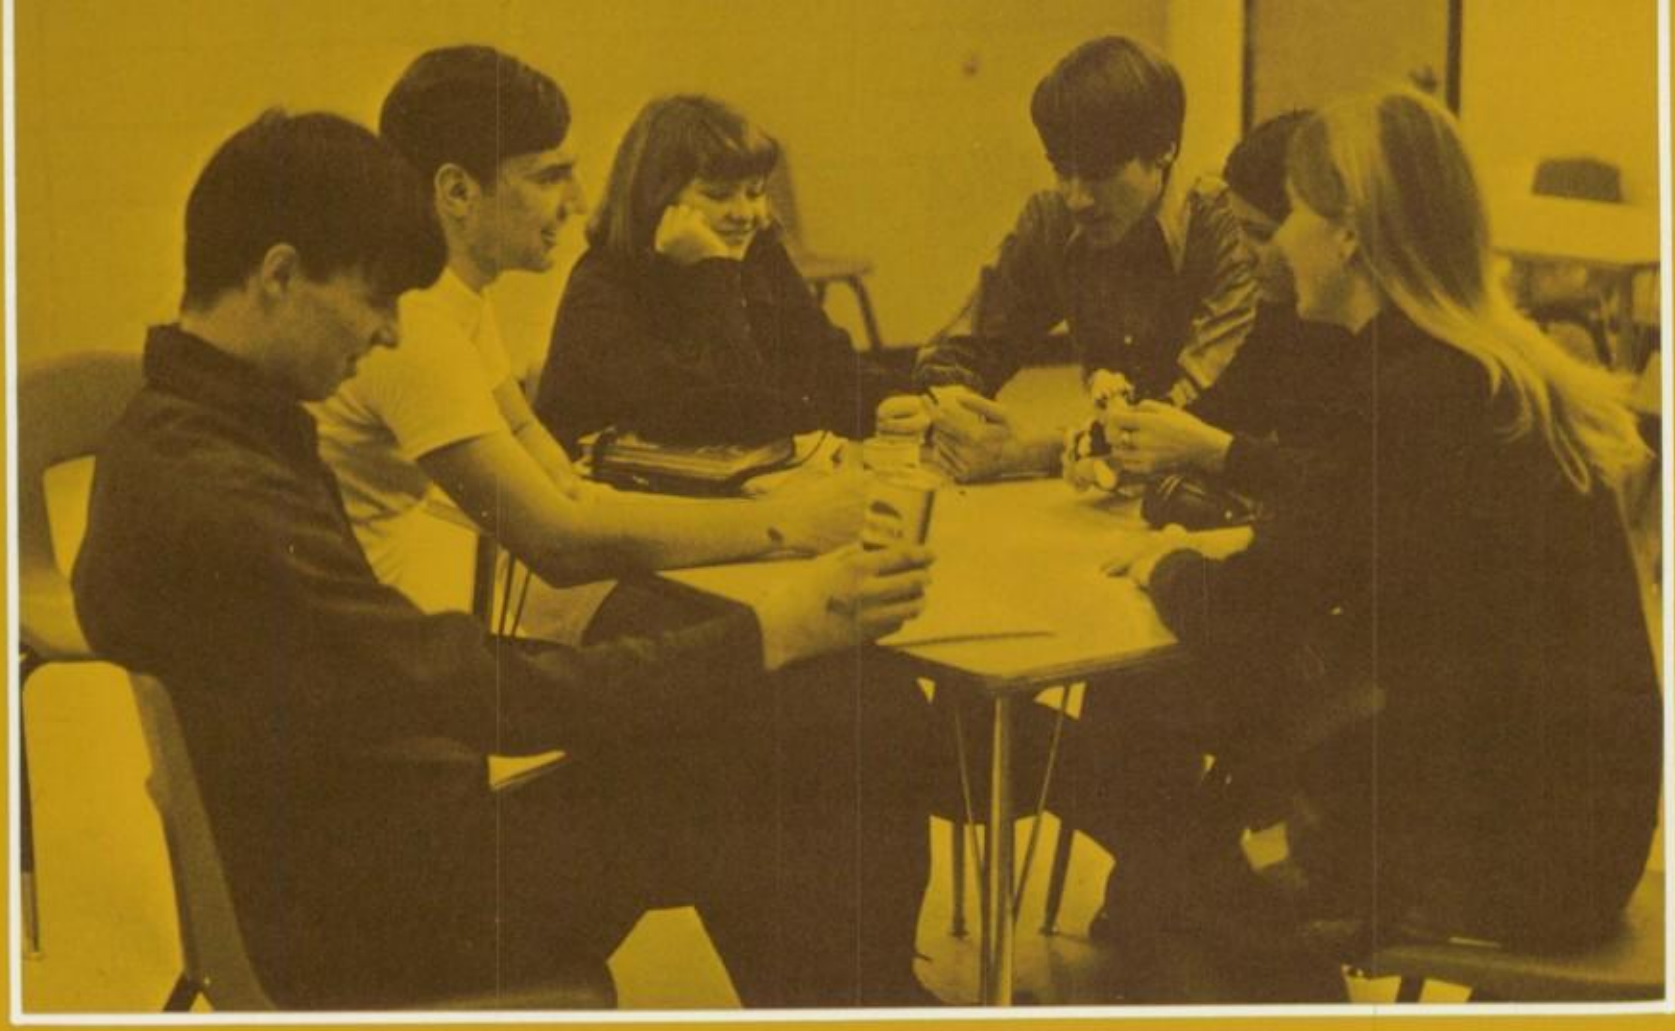
Rufus Suhrke — Throw darts at students' pictures.

Kathy Lichte — Hm-m. Depends on if they're married or not.

Sandy Peirquet — Talk about students.

Kay Abstetar — Sleep.

Sandy Muschinski — Smoke and gossip about the students.



SENIOR LOUNGE RULES

1 TALKING IS permitted but NO screaming!

2 Soda and candy is NOT to be taken out of the lounge.

3 The stereo is to be handled by the supervisor ONLY.

4 All waste material should be discarded in the cans provided

5 Throwing of any waste material will be dealt with severely.

7 Once you are signed in, stay in! NO wandering in the halls!

8 This is a privilege provided for you by YOUR Student Council. PLEASE follow all rules and don't ruin a good thing!

The Game Of Love

A subject that is often on the minds of P.H.S. students is dating, or the lack of dates. There is discussion among the girls, the boys, and sometimes between the sexes about past, present, and maybe future dates. The Quit Qui Oc conducted interviews with students and teachers to try and shed more light on this topic.

Question #1 What is your favorite kind of date?
Question #2 What do you think of going steady?
Question #3 Do you think the "Sexual Revolution" has hit P.H.S.?

Mike McKinster — #1 A movie, I guess.
#2 I think a guy's gotta be nuts!
#3 If it has, I missed it.

Mark Goetsch — #1 A movie.
#2 It's the worst!
#3 It's just begun.

Shelley Binder — #1 Sitting out in a car and talking.
#2 Sometimes it ties you down too much.
#3 Yes, even our hallways show it!

Marcy McCue — #1 Being in a big group.
#2 Nix, for me.
#3 No not really.

Kay Hand — #1 A good movie.
#2 I try not to think about it.
#3 I don't know, I'm not that advanced.

Widow Abler — #1 Going to a show with one girl.
#2 It stinks unless you're really serious.
#3 No but I wish it would!

Jim Butters — #1 Going parking with a girl.
#2 I don't like it.
#3 Definitely not.

Cathy Henry — #1 Rapping.
#2 I don't think you need it.
#3 In the minds of the boys.

Mary Kohlbeck — #1 One with a boy.
#2 I'd rather play the field.
#3 No.

Jeff Giffin — #1 —
#2 I don't like it.
#3 I think it has — It's different from the old days.

Jon Skavlem — #1 Rapping.
#2 I don't think it is a good idea.
#3 No, I don't think things have changed.

Russ Krahn — #1 Parking.
#2 It's a good idea not to.
#3 No.

Dave Prast — #1 Rapping.
#2 It's absurd.
#3 No.

Mary Ziegler — #1 A group.
#2 I don't, it's stupid.
#3 No.

Steve Haumschild — #1 Movie, Mc Donalds, parking.
#2 Weird.
#3 No.

Rick Butters — #1 Movie.
#2 It's great!
#3 No.

Jim Classen — #1 Etc. . . .
#2 It pays off.
#3 No.

Vicki Kempf — #1 It depends on the person.
#2 Yes, if you're really close.
#3 No, I don't think it's that far out of hand.

Julie Thomas — #1 Depends on who you're with.
#2 It ties you down too much most of the time.
#3 I don't know.

Question #1 Do you think that students show too much affection in the halls?
Question #2 Do you think dating distracts from schoolwork more than dates with the same sex?
Question #3 Do you think the "Sexual Revolution" has hit P.H.S.?

Mr. Stadler — # No, I haven't seen too much.
#2 If they go overboard dating — yes, otherwise, psychologically speaking, I think it's good for the morale.
#3 No, I don't think so.

Mr. Olson — #1 No, I don't think they do, but there are a few exemtions.
#2 Yes it does, but it's not necessarily bad!
#3 The "Sexual Revolution" is a product of the mass media. They don't do anything now that they didn't do years ago!

Mr. Veleke — #1,#2,#3,#4, no comment!

Jane Hoehne (student teacher)
#1 I haven't seen anything to criticize that I haven't seen before.
#2 No it isn't.
#3 I haven't been here long enough.

Mrs. Stater — #1 Sometimes.
#2 I don't think so because the people who are distracted will be distracted anyway.

Miss Fromm — #1 No.
#2 No.
#3 A little change but I don't think it's actually come.

Mrs. Paske — #1 I'm stuck in the library and I don't see too much.
#2 As long as they're not going steady.
#3 No.

Bubble Bubble Toil And Trouble

To students in Plymouth High School, there is more to life than school. Having a good time or doing things for other people, either through a church or a community organization, are two of the things that occupy a students after school hours. However many students are occupied in a more profitable pastime, work. In this section we hope to give some recognition to students who work for us in our community.

Question #1 Where do you work?
Question #2 How do you like your job?
Question #3 Are you working just for the money or do you plan to continue after you graduate from high school?

John Olschesky — #1 Maurice's.
#2 Fun to work with the people and a fine job.
#3 I'm hoping to get into fashion merchandizing after I graduate. It would make an interesting career.

Julie Slabe — #1 Schultz Brothers.
#2 Good job. I like my boss.
#3 I'm working for the money so I can go to Stevens Point.

Connie Kolpin — # 1 Telephone operator.
2 Nice Job.
#3 I need the money to go to college.

Marcy McCue — #1 Boeldts, Cascade.
#2 You bet!!
#3 I'm earning the money for River Falls College.

Chris Kaufmann — #1 Sentry.
#2 I like it but I miss out on a lot of things.
#3 I'm earning the money for college.

Mike Siefert — #1 Lauers Economy Liquor.
#2 I like it very much because you meet a variety of people.
#3 I need the money for college and a new car.

Kathy Lichte — #1 Eigenberger and Goelzer Cheese.
#2 Depends on the night and who's working.
#3 I need the money for college.

Brian Miller — #1 Lauer's Food Mart.
#2 I enjoy working with the boys.
#3 I just need the money.

Cindi Holzschuh — #1 Leys.
#2 I like it because I do different things and don't have one standard job.
#3 I want to use the money for college.

Report To The Office

Most students are familiar with the high school office. (That's the regular area, not the places you go when you're naughty.) Most students are also aware of the great job Barb and Betty do in the office: things like telling you your mom called and you forgot your galoshes, teaching you to use the tricky phone in the office, and keeping you company when you're waiting to see Mr. Linster.

In this section we've given the students a chance to make suggestions about how they would improve the way the office is run.

Question: What do you think about the way the office is run?

Dorothy Cunningham — Weekly lunch tickets should be sold every day. It should be run for the benefit of the students.

Jim Jacoby — Lunch ticket system is not very convenient.

Rick Sandvig — The administration has no contact with students.

Mr. Olson — It's a nice place to visit but I wouldn't want to live there.

Mr. O'Connor — It's too crowded.

Mr. Scheible — The lunch ticket is a matter of practicality. I think the office girls are very patient.

Phil Kempf — One principal was good enough for me.

Mr. Linster — Naturally, I think it's being run well. If I didn't think so, I'd change it.

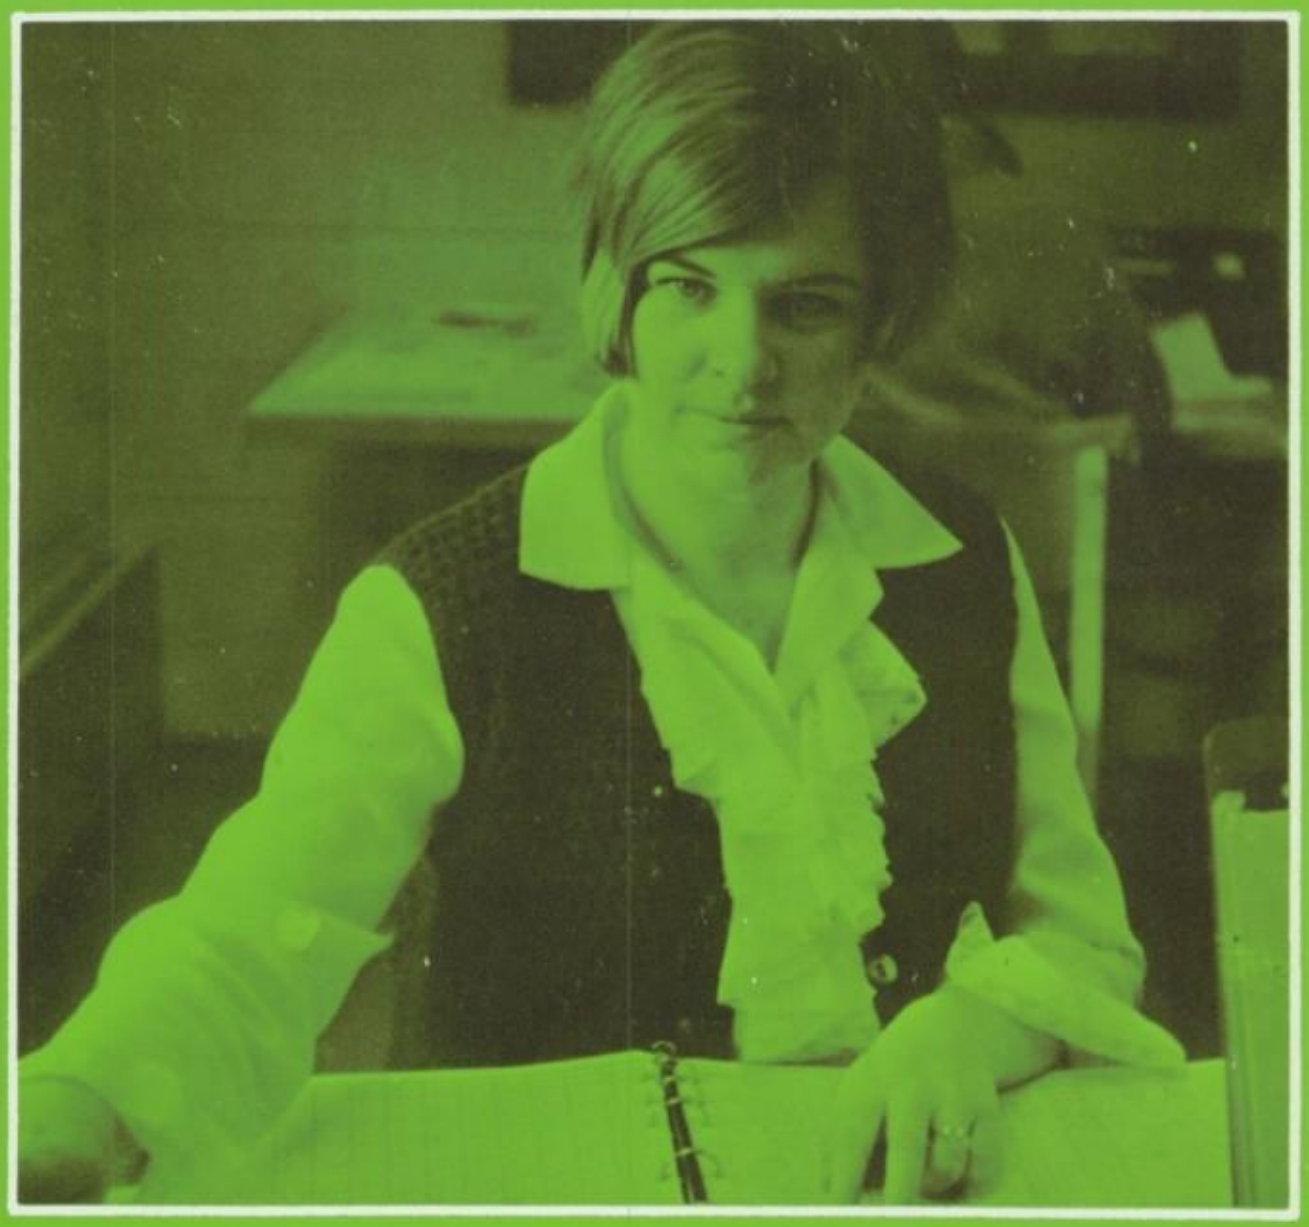
John Dede — Not too bad, maybe a bit slow. Students should have more acess to the principal.

Linda Parsons — They are doing their best but they can't please everybody.

Janice Lau — I think it is run very well. The only thing I dislike is selling weekly lunch tickets only once a week.

Dave Prast — More effective by selling lunch tickets in front of the auditorium in the morning.

Mr. Schmidler — A fine secretarial staff all the way around.



Gone With The Wind

The library is one of the centers of student life in Plymouth High School. A place where students are supposed to study and do research. Some students find that it is also a convenient place to sleep or catch up on the latest gossip. Mrs. Paske does try to keep the peace, sometimes to the dismay of the students involved.

Maybe there are some ways the library could be improved, in the way it is operated and in the material available. The following comments might lend a suggestion as to how this could be done.

Question #1 How often do you go to the library?
Question #2 What do you do there?
Question #3 Can you find the books you want to read on the shelves?

Rolley Pennell — #1 As many as I can.
#2 Sleep.
#3 I never look for books.

Bonnie Abraham — #1 About three times a week.
#2 Talk and throw spit balls.
#3 No, we mixed them up.

Steve Adams — #1 I don't know, once a day maybe.
#2 Laugh at people who come in.
#3 I'm not educated so I don't read any.

Dennis Hughes — #1 About three times a week.
#2 Sleep.
#3 Half and half.

Mike Picard — #1 Maybe 6 modules a day.
#2 Read magazines. I'm a good boy in the library.
#3 I don't look for them.

David Drewy — #1 Two times a week.
#2 Sit and read magazines.
#3 No they're usually all gone.

Brenda Smith — #1 Every other day — five modules.
#2 Unscrew tables or make faces at the librarian.
#3 No.

Linda Weedman — #1 Two days a week.
#2 I play with Paul.
#3 No I never look at books.

Mary Vater — #1 I can go 16,17,12,13,14,15, everyday.
#2 Knit.
#3 Only the Bible.

Kay Abstetar — #1 Never.
#2 Gossip.
#3 No way.

Steve Schuette — #1 You mean like a day?
#2 What do you mean?
#3 I never look for anything.

Robert Koene — #1 Everyday for 2 modules, sometimes Tues. & Thrus.
#2 Read magazines and study sometimes.
#3 I read books from the library.

Randy Tracy — #1 Whenever I get a chance.
#2 Little bit of this and a little bit of that.
#3 Of course.

Steve Mitwede — #1 Once a month.
#2 Research on 3 by 3's (Mr. Greewald calls it that).
#3 I don't look for any.

Tom Fritz — . . I don't know. I'm kicked out.

Diane Weber — #1 Who me? Now I go 2 mods. a day.
#2 Not much.
#3 I've never looked.

Nancy Gahagan — #1 Every day.
#2 Smile at Mrs. Poaske, I talk to Mark too. Don't put Mark down.
#3 I never look.

Mark Deicher — #1 Everyday 14 & 15.
#2 Talk to Nancy.
#3 I don't read books, I read magazines.

Don Burhop — #1 Once a month.
#2 Research.
#3 No but they sell them in the drugstore.

Mike Ziegler — #1 Once a day.
#2 Read books.
#3 Yes, oh no.

Sandy Miller — #1 Five times a day.
#2 Goof off.
#3 I don't look.

Gary Ferguson — #1 Three times a day.
#2 Read news.
#3 If the good ones are there.

Faye Binder — #1 Never.
#2 I don't.
#3 I don't look for any.

Doug Grimes — #1 Once every two weeks.
#2 Look for books.
#3 Sure.

Rose Kreuger — #1 Once in a great while.
#2 Research, because you are unable to study.
#3 No, because I don't know how to use that catalouge.

Russ Hall — #1 Once in a while.
#2 Get books.
#3 Sometimes.

LOOK AT THESE!

Police in the Community

The following is an exclusive interview with Chief of Police Wehmeyer conducted by Jim Janisse, Larry Steinhardt and Jim Thackray in the office of the Chief of Police in City Hall.

Thackray — "What do you think of the students in this town as compared to students in other areas?"

Wehmeyer — "Well in my opinion I don't find too much wrong with the students in our high school system. I get around and see other cities and I'm very proud of these young people the way they conduct themselves. Of course we have some problems but not too many and if we can keep it at this level we won't have too much to worry about."

Thackray — "Could you specify some of the problems that you have encountered, such as drugs, and are drugs a big problem right now?"

Wehmeyer — "As of now I don't believe drugs are a big problem dispite what you may hear to the contrary. There are some rumors and we check them out but that's all they are, rumors. No doubt one of these days we will find the real thing."

Thackray — "Would you like more student cooperation in matter such as breaking the law, things that might help you in your job?"

Wehmeyer — "We'll take all the cooperation we can get from the students and as far as breaking the law, I can't say we have a lot of it going on. We have a few traffic violations and shoplifting cases but it's not too serious for the size enrollment we have in the high school."

Thackray — "Do you ever have to cooperate with the administration in problems of discipline or if they think something's happening in the school itself?"

Wehmeyer — "Well we've been called in on different times when a problem did arise at the school and we have a very close cooperation with the administration in any problems that they might have. So far it's been kept at a minimum."

Thackray — "Do you encounter any disrespect for the officers and has it been getting worse or has it remained the same?"

Wehmeyer — "As far as the high school students are concerned, I don't think there is any more disrespect now than there was a few years back. We do have some people who aren't concerned with the high school at all who come in and try to show their colors when the officers go down the street but as far as the students are concerned again I say there is no serious problem."

Thackray — "So you don't think it's been getting any worse, that it hasn't reached this area yet?"

Wehmeyer — "That's correct."

Steinhardt — "Do you feel you are getting enough cooperation from the students in the community?"

Wehmeyer — "We haven't had too much occasion to ask for cooperation from the students, but if we ever needed it I'm sure some place along the line we would get it either from the faculty or the students."

Janisse — "Do you anticipate any future problems?"

Wehmeyer — "We never anticipate any problems in the future right now, but it is hard to say. Things may go along like this for years or then it may change tomorrow. In this day and age you can expect anything. But I don't anticipate a lot of problems from our local students. They know about how much leeway they are going to get. I know their homecoming is coming up and that there is going to be some celebrating, so we will give them some leeway."

Janisse — "Do you feel that because it's a smaller community and that because there is more contact between the police and students, you can give them more leeway on certain occasions?"

Wehmeyer — "Well, that's right. We have realize this from the past experience and go back to our own high school days. Anything like homecoming was a big annual celebration; something to celebrate, as long as it doesn't get out of hand."

Thackray — "What do you mean when you say you can give leeway in some areas such as disturbing the peace?"

Wehmeyer — "Well I shouldn't say disturbing the peace. But I mean going down the street the morning before the game in a caravan of cars, blowing horns. We'll stand for a certain amount of it, but it can't go on all day. It has been going on in the morning before school starts, we do get a few phone calls from people wondering what is going on. We tell them it's homecoming and of course then they realize. Ordinarily however, they would be asked to discontinue it."

Steinhardt — "Do you get any complaints about the homecoming parade?"

Wehmeyer — "Well as I said, some people will call up and wonder why the horns are blowing or why we don't stop them. We tell them it's homecoming day and that they are celebrating."

Thackray — "Do you ever get any complaints, let's say, from the older citizens about the way the students are conducting themselves and are you asked to do something about it, in an instance where you feel their attitude is unjustified, and if you think it is unjustified do you ignore the complaint?"

Wehmeyer — "Well, we can't ignore these complaints, but being real frank with you, we do get complaints on the dress and the way some students leave their hair grow, congregating on the streets, . . . , right now we don't have an ordinance covering that which some cities have. Some have drawn up a loiteeing ordinance which prohibits students or anybody from gathering on streets, taking up half the sidewalk, sitting on cars, etc. Some people of the community have been asking for such an ordinance, but when we have an element like we do today where there is such a difference between students, some with natural attire, well dressed, and another group that lets their hair grow, don't care how their clothes look. We do have some complaints on this but, as I say, we have nothing to inforce it with."

Thackray — "Do you get these complaints from the people of the community or from the teachers?

Wehmeyer — "Well, we get most from the people of the community, walking down the street, blocking doorways and things like that. Sometimes we do have complaints where there are some remarks to the older people when the older poeple ask to get into a door or to walk by on the sidewalk. We do get those complaints.

Janisse — "What type of incidents would have to occur or what issue where the administration would call you in for a certain matter? Could you give us some examples in the past where this has happened?"

Wehmeyer — "Well we can be called in on a number of things. We can be called in on truancy, someone missing an excessive number of days, or theft out of lockers, or any of the rooms up at school we would naturally be called in. As far as discipline is concerned, that's more or less left up to the school."

Thackray — "If you see a student on the street and you don't think that he is there legally, will you make an effort to stop this student and question him about where he is going, or do you leave that up to the school to report him?"

Wehmeyer — "No, if we see somebody on the street that we think should be in school we stop and find out if he has the excuse to be out of school and double check back at the high school. If he has a valid excuse to be out for any reason then it's fine and dandy. If he isn't the school will let us know and we will bring him back to school."

Thackray — "Is there any penalty for truancy in the community? What is it?"

Wehmeyer — "The penalty is up to the school. They are violating a school rule."

Thackray — "Getting back to congregating on the streets, do you think it's right?"

Wehmeyer — "I have my feeling on this more or less two ways. If we do it to one group we will have to do it to all. Naturally, we do not like them blocking the doorways of any stores. Sitting on cars downtown or sitting on sidewalk with their feet out blocking traffic. But then again if an ordinance is passed where by you can't have more than 2 or 3 people congregating on the sidewalk it's going to cover everyone, not just the young people, but it's going to take in the older people too. Two or three older citizens that are meeting on the street. They are talking, how they haven't seen anybody for a certain length of time. They are in violation of the ordinance, the same as anybody else. So it's a touch and go proposition to enact an ordinance of this type."

Thackray — "Do you think there are enough facilities in this town to keep students occupied and interested?"

Wehmeyer — "Well they've had the youth center for a number of years which I don't know how much it's being used by the high school aged students, but I believe there could be more things to do for the students. Right off hand I don't know what we would suggest. Actually, there aren't too many places to go."

Thackray — "Would you have anything to say to the students that you think would improve the situation or promote more understanding?"

Wehmeyer — "Well, the only thing I could say is we hope for the continued cooperation of the students and it has been good in the past and I'd like to feel it wouldn't get any worse. If there's any way we could improve it any I'm sure if anybody could give us any ideas, we would try to put them in effect."

The Enforcer

The office of vice-principal is fairly new to our school, only having come into being last year. A number of complaints have been made about the addition of this office by some members of the student body. Mr. Linster is doing a job that the School Board thought was necessary and is doing it to the best of his ability. Because there have been comments we feel there is a need for the students to air their views in this section.

Question #1 What is the purpose of Mr. Linster's job in your opinion?
Question #2 Do you think his job is necessary?

Jim Classen — #1 He's kind of like Roosevelt — Big Stick Policy.
#2 Yes, someone has to keep the kids in line.

Diane Schmidt — #1 To make sure the kids into obey the rules. I don't agree with his techniques but I think his job is necessary.

Lori Greisch — #2 I think Mr. Linster's job is necessary because without someone to handle the student body, there would be complete chaos. I would never want his job though!

Clara Schuh — #1 To make sure the kids get to class on time and get punished when they do something wrong.
#2 No, I don't think it's necessary.

Debbie Hellmer — #1 His job is to discipline the student body.
#2 Yes, I think his job is necessary.

Linda Marquardt — #1 I really don't know what his job is.
#2 I guess it is necessary but I really don't know.

Jean Wieser — #1 To keep order in the school so the kids that want to learn something can.
#2 Yes.

Sue Larson — #1 Punish the kids.
#2 Yes.

Diane Weber — #1 He's suppose to discipline the kids.
#2 Yes, I suppose.

Mr. Poeske — #1 Agriculture and part time vice principal.
#2 Yes, but vice principal should be his full time job.

ASST. PRINCIPAL

Let's Get To The Point!

The demerit system is also a new inovation at P.H.S. Some people like it and some don't. The reasons are many and varied. In this section we will try to present the reasons for the controversy by having students make comments about it.

What do you think of the Demerit System?

Dorothy Cunningham — Points don't mean much. Time is useless.

Jim Jacoby — Doesn't serve any purpose.

Allan Stankevitz — Guys who get demerits don't care.

Rick Sandvig — Demerits have no value. They mean nothing.

Lonna Kleinhans — Hours aren't so hot.

Judy Trimberger — It doesn't work. Kids brag about how many demerits they get.

Mr. Olson — Doesn't work. Kids who get demerits are the kind of people who couldn't care less.

Karla Mueller — I don't like demerit system. I've got to look up names. It's too much work.

Rose Krueger — Works about half of the time. Apparently it has decreased disorder in school.

Mr. Schieble — It didn't work last year. I don't know much about this year.

Gary Ferguson — It's a little ridiculous. It should be set up to judge crime, not character.

Dave Prast — Better than time. They should inform the students what the rules are.

Jay Giffin — It's too bad we have to have it.

Barb Bittner — It works. A lot of kids don't skip.

Mr. Linster — Good teachers have little need to use the system. It's more for office discipline than teacher discipline.

Mr. Schmidler — Later in life the accumulative record of students will be important.

Julie Miskowicz — It seems silly.

Linda Flunker — I can't get away with skipping.

Mr. Greenwald — It's an improvement on the previous system.

Linda Parsons — It's an improvement.

Mike Deicher — It helps the kids to be good.

Debbie Rutter — People get so many points that after a while it doesn't bother them so they still do things wrong.

Susie Roberts — It really isn't enforced. Some people have over 18 points and they still haven't gotten a three-day pass.

Peg Steuerwald — I don't know, I never had any experience with it.

Kathy Wagner — Kids get away with too much, demerit system or not.

Chad Christianson — It doesn't scare a kid not to do the stuff they're going to do. It doesn't matter to them if they get a few demerits.

Bev Alves — The kids that disobey will always disobey unless there is someone or something there to help them. All of the point systems you can dream up won't change this minority.

Penny Gilman — Kids don't worry about getting them (points).

Dave Mohs — Some kids get so many and nothing happens to them. But it's better for the kids that get just a couple because they don't have to make up any hours the way they used to.

Faye Binder — The kids never think anything is going to happen to them anyway. What's a few demerits? They don't care.

School Spirit??

School spirit; a strange phrase. What is school spirit? Ask ten different people and you'll probably get ten different answers. Is it cheering the team on even when it's losing, attending pep ralleys every Friday, just showing up for the games? Or is it going to school for four years without writing on the back of a desk, never running in the halls, and being polite to your teachers at all times?

Even after attending this school for four years, I'm probably not qualified to say anything about the subject of school spirit. However I would like to leave something to the classes which will graduate after the class of 1971.

School spirit could be the things which are listed above — I'm not saying that they're wrong. I would rather think that instead of placing so much emphasis on "school spirit" there would be more emphasis placed on school pride. This does not mean just saying that P.H.S. is the greatest or that we have the best team. I mean a pride so strong that when you see something wrong with the way other students are acting or a change that should be made in the system, you will speak out loudly! Changes should be made. But if you don't make them, or at least try, no one else will. I know that this may sound like some bunk your parents or teachers would tell you, but it's true. Your years in high school will be whatever you make them.

Is It Soup Yet?

Perhaps one of the more controversial subjects at PHS is the food in the cafeteria. Although there seems to be numerous complaints, there also appears to be an equal amount of opinions favoring the hot lunch program. The following is a collection of these opinions. Included is some of the ideas expressed by the cooks, themselves.

Some of the students were asked the following:

Question 1 Do you participate in the hot lunch program? Why or why not?
Question 2 How do you like the meals that are served? How do you think they could be improved?
Question 3 Do you like the way some students leave a mess in the cafeteria? If not, do you try to do something about it?

Jane Ule —
Question 1 No because I'd have to pay for it myself.
Question 3 Yes, if you mean the food.

Steve Baker —
Question 1 Yes. It's something to eat.
Question 2 Good enough. Better variety.
Question 3 No. I try to do something.

Steve Vorpagel —
Question 1 Yes. Beats bringing a sack.
Question 2 Pretty good. Seconds or bigger helpings.
Question 3 No, I do try.

Mike Kober —
Question 1 Yes. I gotta eat something.
Question 2 Some are good. More burgers and dogs.
Question 3 Cool.

Brian Benish —
Question 1 Yes, because it's there and I gotta eat.
Question 2 Alright. Nothing wrong.
Question 3 It don't phase me.

Mike Picard —
Questions 1,2,&3 Same as Ben.

Gary Raeder —
Question 1 Yes. It's something to do during the lunch modules.
Question 2 I like them. Leave 'em the way they are.
Question 3 Doesn't make any difference to me.

Tom Fritz —
Question 1 Sure. I like hot lunches.
Question 2 Yes. I don't think they could be improved.
Question 3 No, it's immature. Once in a while.

Pugsley Petherick —
Question 1 Yes. It beats peanut butter sandwiches.
Question 2 Yes. Just a little.
Question 3 No. I just take care of myself.

Jay Kretsch —
Question 1 Yes. My mom doesn't like fixing cold lunches.
Question 2 Some are good, some are bad. Take a survey of what the kids like?
Question 3 I don't like it. We tell Mr. Greenwald.

Jeff Giffin —
Question 1 Yes. I don't like flying the bag.
Question 2 No. More variety and more food.
Question 3 No I don't. Yes I do.

Jim Suhrke —
Question 1 Yes, too much trouble to pack a lunch.
Question 2 Some of them are good. Ask the students what they want, and buy better food to begin with.
Question 3 No, sometimes I whip food back.

Rich Gilman —
Question 1 Yes. There's nothing else to eat.
Question 2 They should give you what you want instead of what you don't want.
Question 3 Definitely.

The cooks in the cafeteria were asked the following:

Question 1 How do you like serving lunch to several hundred students each day?
Question 2 Do you find that most of the students are courteous or could they use some improvement in their manners?
Question 3 Which do you get more of, complaints or compliments?

Mrs. Ribbens:
Question 1 I love it.
Question 1 Most of them are courteous.
Question 3 Complaints, to be truthful.

Mrs. Micheals:
Question 1 I don't mind, I think they are beautiful children.
Question 2 Most of them are nice.
Question 3 About even.

Mrs. Jeske:
Question 1 Fine.
Question 2 Most of them are courteous.
Question 3 More compliments, I really do.

Mrs. Becher:
Question 1 It's fun.
Question 2 Most of them are pretty good.
Question 3 More compliments.

Mrs. Streblow:
Question 1 Wonderful.
Question 2 Most are courteous.
Question 3 Compliments, although some days they don't like it.

Prom 1970 brings back some good and some bad memories. There was that feeling of peace and new love in the air. There was a sense of accomplishment all around. A little of the bad comes with the remembrance of our band, The Third Stone, who played Let It Be instead of the theme song. But we must all admit we had a wonderful time and a lasting remembrance.

'70 Homecoming

A crowning, a pep skit, a Panther's spirit . . a Homecoming 1970. The Seniors won the Little Brown Jug with their yelling, enthusiasm and pep. The Juniors won hall competition with their Junior Junction as they just squeezed by the Senior's Panther Pad. The burning of the R-A-I-D-E-R-S — the parade to Kiel. Although we lost 14-0, we conquered all Saturday night with Reggie Barber and Mr. Greenwald. All to be summed up by . . THE GREATEST HOMECOMING WE'VE EVER SEEN.

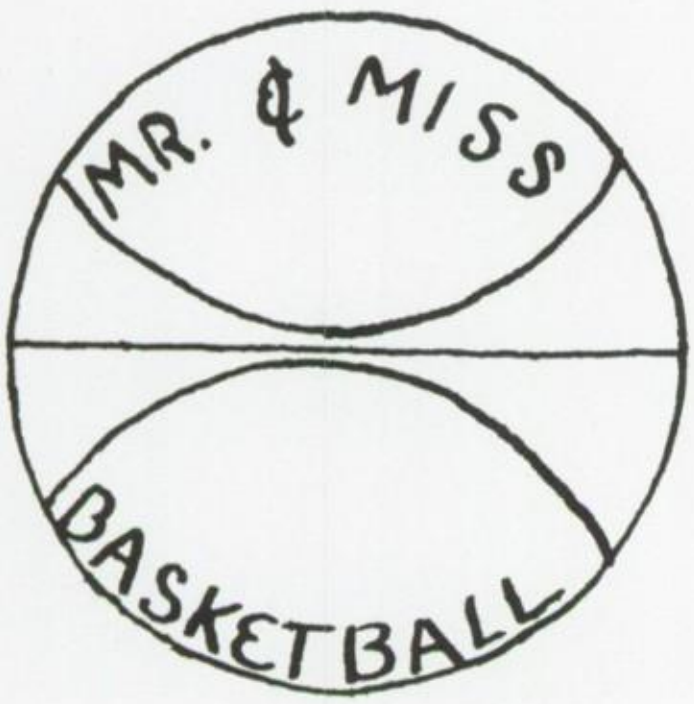
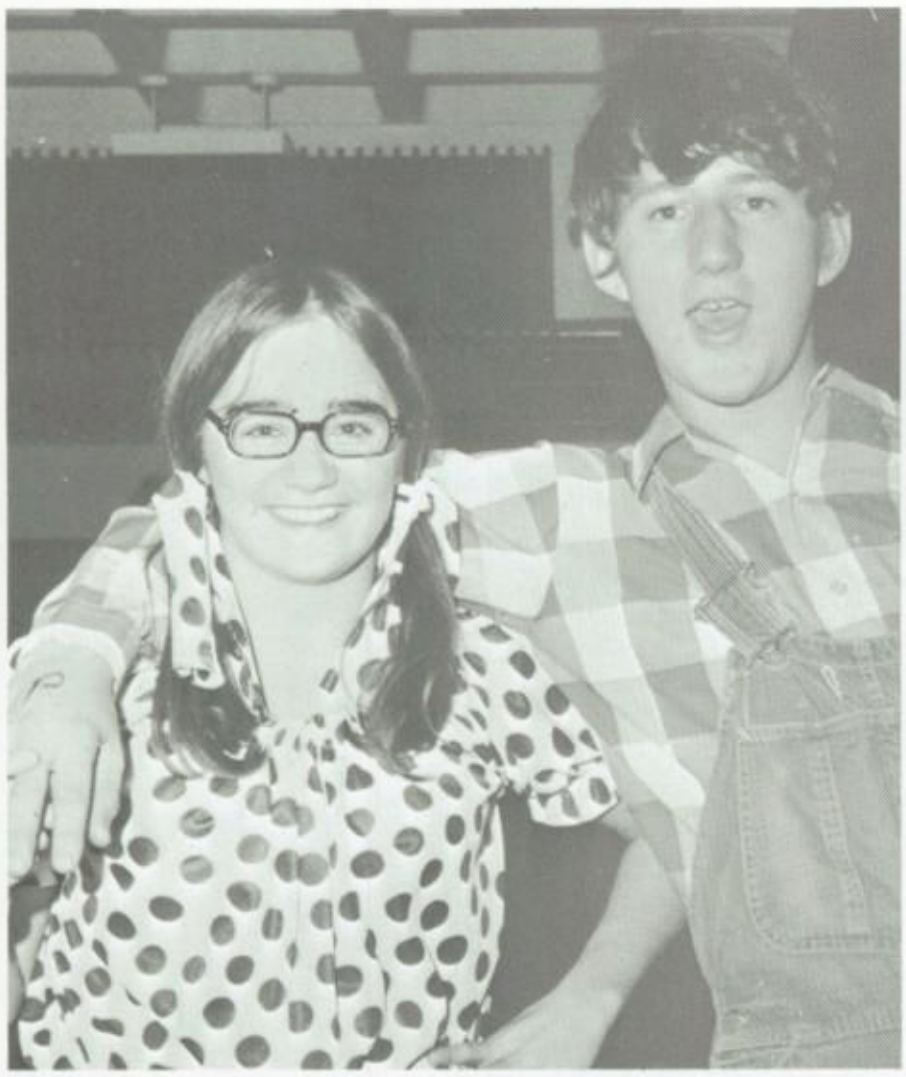
The Plymouth Panthers lost the J. H. Williams Track Meet by three points to Sheboygan Falls. The team, the crowd, and the coaches put forth their every effort, but were rewarded by a second place trophy. Queen Bonnie and her princesses reigned over the exciting meet and offered ribbons and kisses to all those who won prizes.



Saturday, February 13, was the day of Mr. and Mrs. Basketball game and dance. The Panthers lost a close game to New Holstein. The game was then followed up by a dance in the cafeteria. At 10:30, Coach Wild announced and crowned John "Shiner" Meerstein as Mr. Basketball 1970-1971. Shiner in turn crowned his royal queen, Debbie Sagal.

Debbie and Shiner "in action"..



Debbie Sagal as "Daisy Mae" and her "Lil Abner" Zeke Nicolaus were a main attraction of Sadie Hawkin's night.

Connie Kolpin handed out her many kisses freely.

Then again — the free refreshments offered the evening's entertainment.

Mary Kolhbeck and Rita Blanke served as "Marryin' Sam and Wife". They gave all newlyweds genuine ivory rings and authentic certificates of marriage.

Senior Class Play

Chantal and Gene recuperate after a honeymoon. (Who said rehearsals aren't fun!)

A rehearsal scene from "If A Man Answers".

"If A Man Answers" by David Rogers was chosen by Mrs. Wetherall and Mr. Stoltenberg this year. The play is a light comedy about Chantal and Gene who recently married, and the problems marriage presents.

Chantal begins by modeling for Gene. Her father doesn't like the kind of 'modeling' she does, so he sends her home, but Chantal falls in love and marries Gene. Chantal uses the book "How to Train Man's Best Friend" to discipline her husband. Tina Brooks then steps in and takes over Gene. Chantal as a result makes up Robert Swan to make Gene jealous only to find out that Gene's father impersonates Robert Swan to make matters worse. It all ends up happily ever after with Gene and Chantal together and Tina and Gene's father dating.

Plymouth High Musical Rates Standing Ovation

By BETTY SANDVIG
Press Correspondent

PLYMOUTH — A standing ovation was received by the cast as the final curtain came down on the third performance of The Sound of Music at Plymouth High School Saturday evening.

Comments such as tremendous, marvelous and wonderful were heard as 1,100 persons left the building. Near capacity audiences enjoyed the show each night.

The indescribably beautiful back drops, lovely sets, and authentic costumes added to the almost professional performance of the entire cast. From the first scene of the nuns' chorus in the Nonnberg Abbey to the final dramatic moment as the Trapp family "climbed the mountain" to escape the German officers, the cast entertained and thrilled the audiences with their performances.

Lead roles of Debbie Stolper as Maria Rainer and Duane Abler as Captain Georg von Trapp, seemed perfectly cast. The fun loving Maria played each scene with the self assurance of a professional actress as her beautiful rich voice rang out in such musical selections as the title number in the second scene, "Do-Re-Mi" with the children and the humorous "My Favorite Things." From the extremely frumpy dress when she arrived at the villa she emerged as the beautiful bride in the wedding scene.

Abler also gave a superb performance, including his rendition of "Edelwies." The two stars danced equally as well in the charming old fashioned dance.

A fine performance was also presented by each of the seven children from Liesl, the charming teenager, played by Vicki Grant, to the adorable Debbie Heinecke as Gretl. The other children were Joe Dellger as Friedrich; Vicki Marquardt, Louisa; Chris Stoll, Kurt; Sue Lau, Brigitta and Laura Koene, Marta. An especially cute scene was in Maria's bedroom as she made them forget their fear of the storm and they marched around the room and romped on the bed to songs.

The antics of David Prast as Max Detweiler added a humorous note to the play as his performance, including his singing was outstanding. Equally as good were the other members of the cast, Karen Kapellen, Sister Berthe; Merrie Hellestad, Sister Margaretta; Debbie Suemnicht, The Mother Abbess; Jeanine Ward, Sister Sophia; Jim Janisse, Franz; Kathy Wifler, Frau Schmidt; Mike Seifert, Rolf Gruber; Diane Novotny, Elsa Schraeder; Patty Ardell, Elsa Schraeder; Rick Butters, Herr Zeller; Gary Ferguson, Baron Elberfeld; Cindi Holzschuh, Baroness Elberfeld; Kay Kretsch, a Postulant; and Jim Thackray, Admiral von Schreiber.

Musical accompaniment was provided by Shirley Hamann at the piano and Bob Stoll at the organ.

Another hit is credited to the directors, Stoll, vocal music instructor, and Herbert Stoltenberg, English instructor.

Maria Rainier and Captain Von Trapp marry with the children as bridesmaids and groomsmen.

Let's try that again!

Pious nuns, indeed!

Plymouth traveled by bus to Colorado stopping near Boys Town, Nebraska overnight. P.H.S. students left March 21-28. P.H.S. was chaperoned by Mr. Brinkman and Mrs. Wetherall. The exchange elected Linda Parsons and Debbie Stolper as co-chairman.

While P.H.S. visited Colorado, they saw such places as Colorado Springs, Garden of the Gods, the Air Force Academy, and the Denver Mint. At Jefferson High they reviewed their extra-curricular activities, the curriculum, the sports program, the student conduct, and the opposite sex. Each exchangee has two full weeks of memories and lasting friendships to cherish from 1971.

From France

At the beginning of this letter I would like to thank everyone of you for everything you did for me. I would like to thank Mr. Andereck, Mrs. Amundson, my parents, Mr. and Mrs. Krupp, my brothers and sisters. I know that "Thank you" is a very little word for all what you gave to me. I will have an excellent memory of my year in Plymouth, and I only think it is too bad that it has to be over. When I will be back in France my friends will ask me what I think about the U.S.A. I will tell them about Homecoming, Junior Prom, snowmobiling, Christmas time . . . I will explain to them how your school works, about the football games where there are almost more girls than boys. I know that when they hear me, they are going to wish to come, too; and I understand that, because I realize how lucky I am to spend this year with you. Some of my best memories are the one act play, We'll blow on it.", lunch time with my traditional coffee, the homecoming dance, the very many slumber parties. . .and I only believe I had good times.

But there is something that I want to tell you — the main thing I learned about the U.S.A. is that you are people just like we are, and are able to like and understand others. I have really appreciated that characteristic in my family and even in school.

Before I leave you, I would wish one more thing. If anyone of you visit France or even Europe, I hope you will come to my place, for I am waiting for you.

Badger State Representatives — Jim Janise, Jim Thackray, Cindy Holzschuh, and Jay Giffin.

This summer I participated in a program to teach the American high school senior the American way of life. The program allows all participants to become involved in the actual operation of a democratic form of government. This program was called the Badger Boys State and was sponsored by the American Legion and the Kiwanis Club.

B.B.S. is held annually at Ripon College, Ripon, Wisconsin. The dormitories are the essential part of B.B.S. Each floor of the dorm is a city named after one of Wisconsin's past governors, while each dorm makes a whole county. All the counties together make up what is known as B.B.S. The week at Ripon is industriously spent in classes of a political nature, party elections, Congressional meetings, party conventions, and assemblies with guest speakers including the Governor of Wisconsin. Every afternoon is spent in recreation in which Ripon College has some of the finest facilities. Teams made from the different cities play against each other in such sports as basketball, football, volleyball, etc. On Friday, the last full day of the B.B.S. week, a track meet is held, an end is put to the classes, and the last Congressional meeting is held.

Some of the program and some of the rules set are not altogether perfect; for example, everyone had to be in bed and sleeping at 10:30 (!), and the same B.B.S. T-shirt and hat were worn all week long. . . . But besides these pet peeves, I am very thankful to the American Legion and the Kiwanis Club for giving me the chance to take part in the actual working of a mock city, for all the friends I met, and for talking to and learning opinions of other boys my age.

Boys and Girls of the Month

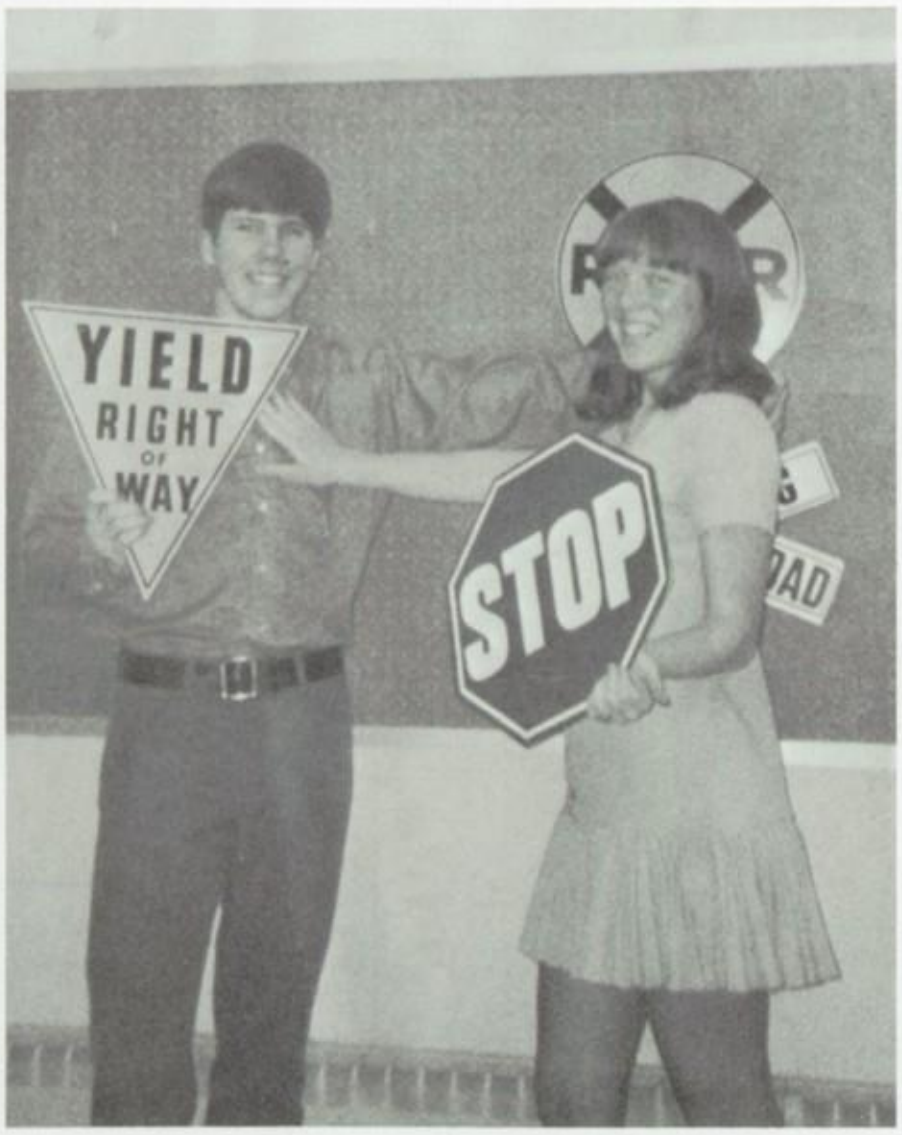
Each month a senior girl and boy was honored by the Women's Club and the Kiwanis Club respectively. These students were chosen on their personalities and all-around reputations. The attended the regular meetings of the clubs. The boys attended a banquet at the Mitchell Hotel while the girls received stationery and patriotic flag pins.

September brought us Vickie Grant — very deserving of the award.

October presented Widow Abler and Linda Finke.

November is represented by none other than Cindi Holzschuh and Jay Giffin.

Missing are Mark Goetsch and Linda Parsons — the February Boy and Girl of the Month.



January brought us Mary Kolhbeck and Jim Jacoby.

Bob Nolte and Diane Novotny showed up in December.

Rita Blanke and Paul Rentmeester, picked in the month of March, play around with the fuzz-machines.

Judy Ott alias! Domestic Dorothy' received the Homemaker of Tomorrow award.

Linda Finke, the winner of the D.A.R. award, believes in American patriotism.

Awards

Judy Ott was named the Homemaker of Tomorrow for Plymouth High School. Judy scored the highest of all the senior girls on the Betty Crocker test which was given on December fifth.

Judy has an opportunity to become the Homemaker of Tomorrow for Wisconsin, and even All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow on the national level.

Judy's test will be compared with other winners from Wisconsin High Schools, and if she is a state winner, then her test will be sent to the national finals.

Scholarships for educational purposes will be given out. General Mills have awarded more than 1¾ million dollars in the seventeen year history of the Betty Crocker award.

The pariticpation of over seven and ¾ million girls gives Judy a sense of sincere satisfaction.

Linda Finke was chosen by her classmates, the faculty, and administration to receive this award. The students were to select a girl whom they felt should receive this award. The top three were sent to the faculty for final consideration. Linda was chosen for her patriotism, citizenship, service, and character.

After being selected, Linda filled out a questionnaire which was sent to state competition. The top three winners of the state finals receive scholarships.

Linda is an active P.H.S. student with active plans. She has decided on majoring in speech therapy. She say, "I dislike disrespectful people. I feel citizenship is important, that is why I feel honored to get this award."

Jim Jacoby, Cathy Wifler, Cindi Holzschuh, Jim Thackray, and advisor, Mr. Rettig, all give 'thumbs up' on a good season.

P.H.S. — Five-High

Plymouth High School was extremely fortunate to be represented on the "Five High Team" by five outstanding seniors in the persons of Cindi Holzschuh, Jim Jacoby, Kathy Michaels, Jim Thackray, and Cathy Wifler. The team spent considerable time practicing and was successful on December 19, 1971 when they defeated the two time winner Oconto Falls. Their bright hopes were dampened by a narrow defeat to Appelton Xaiver, but they took some consolation in the fact that they retired undefeated.

I am pleased that these students could achieve recognition of their peers and their community through academic achievement.

Panthers No. 4 in the State

BASEBALL TEAM: M. Hellestad, Coach Henschel, F. Gaytas, S. Vorpagel, G. Kraemer, J. Kalk, R. Krahn, W. Struve, J. Janisse, T. Weedman, D. Miller; MISSING: B. Krahn, P. Hughes, B. Nolte, C. Machut, M. Miller.

Plymouth High School's baseball team has had an outstanding record in the past years, and this year was no exception.

The Panthers had a slow start, losing their first two games, but came on strong to take second place in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference. Plymouth was in contention throughout the entire season, but just couldn't put it all together when they had to. After being eliminated once, they were given a second chance at the title, as the top team lost. The Panthers failed to capitalize, though, and had to settle for being number two.

Being number two, however, didn't stop them from going to state. After defeating Howards Grove and Kohler in regional competition, the Panthers went on to overpower Cedar Grove and Campbellsport in sectionals and earned the right to go on to state. Plymouth lost their first game to a fine Hamilton-Sussex team, ending a successful season.

The Panthers had a versatile as well as experienced team with nine returning lettermen. Among these were team captain Dale Miller, and Most Valuable Player and leading hitter, Bruce Krahn.

Perhaps the feelings of the entire team were best summed up by Chuck Machut, who said: "The season didn't start out to good but sure ended up great. At the regionals and sectionals, it seemed that everything just fell into place, and we just did everything right. One thing we had going for us was playing as a team. Playing some of those other teams, you couldn't help but notice that if one guy made a mistake, the others on the team would jump on him. We always try to forget something like that and play the next one."

Being in a new conference and losing numerous senior lettermen, the Panthers have their work cut out for them this year, to keep up the tradition of a successful team.

1970 — A Year of Rebuilding

VARSITY TEAM ROW 1: D. Kestell, M. Deicher, M. Hembel, W. Struve, D. Burhop, M. Goetsch, S. Vorpagel, S. Groene, J. Blanke; ROW 2: R. Kraemer, D. Ribbens, M. Lindorfer, J. Skavlem, R. Krahn, B. Adams, Coach Johnson, J. Kretsch, mgr.

There is little you can say for a disappointing season. However, this year could prove valuable in years to come, as there will be a number of experienced lettermen. With only seven experienced seniors, Coach Johnson had to rely largely on under Classmen.

The season began with five, tough, non-conference games. A number of these teams were top-ranked in the state. Although the team was not victorious, they certainly had a fine showing.

The first conference game loss to Chilton seemed to take everything out of the Panthers. Although they were never beaten badly, Plymouth could never rise to the occasion and get a win.

Whether a team has a winning season or not, there is bound to be some humorous moments. An incident of this type occured one night in dummy practice. Jay Giffin tells it this way: An offense, under the direction of Coach Brunet, was running some plays at half-speed. As the huddle began to form after losing a few yards on the previous play, someone asked Mr. Brunet what had gone wrong since there had been a large hole. The coach explained that Gary Lisowe had ran to the wrong hole. Gary, hearing this, exploded. "I've had enough! I've had enough! Unless you say those plays louder so I can hear them, I'll not run one play. Not one play! You know I can't hear those plays. I'll quit! I'll walk right off the field if you don't say those plays louder!

It was incidents such as these that kept up the spirit of the team. And it wasn't only the spirit of the team that was kept up. The fans were loyal to the team through thick and thin. Like, remember the night of the Falls game when none of the Panther fans left the game until the gun sounded the end of the 1970 Football season and the last time the seniors would cheer for their football team. As Mark Goetsch would put it: "One thing I will always be proud of is that I played football for PHS."

A team isn't just players and fans, though. It's the coaches. The guys who without them, you couldn't have a team. Most of the players would agree that we have three of the finest coaches in the conference, Head coach DeWayne Johnson, and his able assistants, Coaches Wild and Brunet.

There's not too much more you can say about the football team, but we would like to wish the coaches and players good luck in the future.

Plymouth's Cross Country team enjoyed perhaps its finest season this year.

In Invitational action, the Panthers finished 7th at the Laser Invitational, 5th at the Sheboygan Invitational, and captured a first at the North Fondulac meet.

With their best showing of the year, Plymouth finished third in the newly formed Packerland Conference. In tournament competition, the Panthers placed 5th at the Regionals held at Beaver Dam.

When asked about the team, Captain Jim Miller said, "The team gave an all out effort in every meet and each individual tried to improve every race. Practices were hard, but everybody hung on. I'd like to see more support from the students in the future. With this, I feel the Cross Country team will become a bigger part of PHS."

The 1970-71 basketball season was one of building and disappointment.

After getting off to a slow start, the team began to gell as a unit, but the loss of a few fine ball players threw the Panther machine out of whack.

Throughout the season the Panthers had a rough time putting it together, and never did find the right combination until four games remained.

Beginning with Luxemburg Casco, the Panthers played brilliant ball, averaging 63 points a game, compared with ther 52 point average earlier in the season. They wound up the season with a fantastic victory over rival, Sheboygan Falls, 67-66.

The game was extremely close, as the lead changed hands many times. A jump shot by Steve Groene with 37 seconds remaining provided the margin of victory.

The Panthers ended the season with a 2-11 record.

The J.V.'s had a fine season, considering that many times their key players moved up to varsity. They finished with a record of 13-5.

Even brighter hopes can be seen in the Freshmen, as they posted a 7-5 record. The 5 losses are not a true indication of how the team played, since three losses were by only one point (one loss being a triple overtime to New Holstein.)

Steve Groene led the Panthers in scoring, followed by senior John Kalk. The only other senior on the squd, John Meerstein, led the team in rebounds.

Since only two seniors are leaving, Panther fans can expect some exciting basketball next year.

Judges and timers ready ... Swimmers to your mark ... BANG!!!!! The referee's gun cracks loudly. Everyone is deaf for awhile, but soon you are all wrapped up with the sound of thrashing water. The Swimming Panthers have started! They rip through the water at great speed. They are dangerous as they seek their prey (winning the meet).

Mr. Brunett has started to build up a great team. The spirit and the effort were strong this year. There was plenty of determination. Sectionals were exciting, it was an all day affair — plenty of action, girls, and food. Jim Lammers, Jim Petherick, and Craig Kelling showed fine performances.

Grapplers Enjoy Best Season

WRESTLING TEAM: ROW 1; M. Hembel, S. Kestell, C. Bayne, P. Luhm, C. Kulow, B. Wimmler. ROW 2; J. Giffin, J. Prange, D. Kestell, M. Luhm, T. Bruce, J. Edder, J. Pierce. ROW 3; W. Hochrein, M. Goetsch, B. Goelzer, D. Vorpagal, G. LeMahieu, L. Menchak, Mr. Knutson.

The Panther wrestling team, plagued by injuries early in the season, got off to a slow start, but improved greatly, ending up with a season record of 7 wins and 6 losses. They placed 3rd in the Slinger Invitational and 3rd in the Plymouth Invitational. Co-captains for this year's team were seniors Mark Hembel and Dave Kestell. Bob Goelzer, the team's outstanding wrestler, took first place at the two invitationals, second at the regional tourney and third in conference and sectional meets. Although wrestling is a fairly new sport here, it has been catching on fast with the fans, and if they keep up fine work, next season should be even better than last.

Cindermen "Burn" to State

TRACK TEAM: ROW 1; D. Groene, J. Blanke, J. Jacoby, L. Lisowe, J. Giffin, G. Lisowe. ROW 2; G. Nygaard, J. Meerstein, J. Miller, J. Foley, S. Vorpagal, R. Butters, J. Larson, A. Stankevitz, R. Krahn, S. Behrens, J. Kretsch.

The 1970 track season was successful, hilighted by many achievements. The Panthers broke two records, sent four men to state, and placed second in the J. H. Williams relays, missing first by three points. By far, the greatest of these achievements was taking the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, and "burning" our arch-rivals, Falls. Jay Giffin tells it like this.

"Falls was heavily favored and their team was really cocky. They were surprised that we were even close to them. Coming into the last event, the mile relay, we were ahead by two points. As I saw our anchorman sprinting down the home stretch in the lead, everything sort of swelled up inside of me, and I felt as wonderful as I have ever felt in my life.

I firmly believe that a major reason for our win was a talk Mr. Finke gave us. As everyone knows, he is really something. He was a fine athlete himself, and has a lot of pride. Well, after we had lost J. H. Williams to Falls, he had overheard a Falls coach remark, "At the conference meet, when Falls is laughing, Finke will be crying!" Mr. Finke told us this, and his orders were explicit, "Let's make those guys eat their words", which we really did!"

The rest of the season was definitly not anticlimax. Working for the regionals and sectionals was hard, but it was worth it when they made that trip to Madison. Besides personal satisfaction and school pride, the guys felt it was a reward to their coaches, Mr. Brinkman and Mr. Johnson, who had worked just as hard.

Well, 1970 track is gone. But the memories of that conference meet will never be done to anyone on that team.

"Hercules?"

"Jay Giffin shows his good (?) form".

"Just takin' it easy."

"Mark Hellestad heaves the discus".

Golfers Swing Into Season

GOLF TEAM: T. Weedman, J. Sartori, M. Helmke, J. Binder, B. Zinkgraf, J. Koch.

The golf team, like most sports in 1970-71, were faced with the problem of inexperience. The entire varsity from last year was lost to graduation. Coach Bill Mikolyzk had to rely largely on some first year seniors and the few underclassmen that had been on the team before.

Two returning team members include senior Jan Binder and junior Jeff Koch. Jan feels that the student body should back the team. "Students should come to the meets and offer their support and encouragement. Perhaps then the players would try even harder and make a strong team."

All in all, this season will prove valuable in years to come as it is a basis for the growth of the golf at PHS.

In his second year as coach, Jerry Brinkman continues to build tennis into a strong sport.

Paced by Senior letterman Eugene Schaefer, and other members such as Marty Lindorfer, Dan Bein, Reinhardt Rose, and Ross Brueser, the Panthers were hopeful of repeating as the conference champs.

Prospects are good for the future, as only one senior will be lost, and valuable experience will be gained by the many underclassmen on the team.

The team watches a match closely.

CHEERLEADERS

For views and opinions on the cheerleaders this year, the captain of the varsity squad, Carol Capelle had this to say. "I really enjoyed Cheerleading this year. I got disgusted about practices, though, because kids wouldn't come because they didn't feel like it or said they forgot.

This year we had quite a few money making projects which helped us to lessen the debt. I think cheerleaders should go to camps and contests more. I really enjoyed the CYO contest and we got a lot of ideas from it.

It's really an honor being able to represent the school, but I don't think the school should restrict what we wear and how we wear our hair; but if they do, they should be consistent with the ruling.

Letter Club

The Letter Club is comprised of young men, who have strived for excellance in their particular fields. For their reward they are given the status of Letterman.

Letter Club has raised money this year, through sponsoring a Brat Fry and a Senior-Faculty Game. The J. H. Williams Track Meet was also sponsored by Letter Club.

All of the money raised by Letter Club goes toward buying a Hercules Weight Lifting Machine. This Hercules Weight Lifting Machine will be put up in the gym balcony and will be a big asset to this school.

Quit Qui Oc

The annual staff has had a different kind of year. By making changes and taking chances the 1971 Quit Qui Oc staff hoped it put out a thoroughly different and better yearbook.

It hasn't been a bed of roses. The year started out with hassels with the administration, but then we had our slightly used yellow cabinet to make us happy. Later on in the year, we tried to settle beefs with other students about the contents of the book. The staff thought they were right, many students felt they were right, but nobody knew for sure. Many of us aquired headaches in the process of preparing our layouts in time to meet the deadlines, but we always seemed to come through somehow with flying colors.

Room 222 is a social center, a study hall, a game room and a place where weary souls can relieve their tensions in blissful slumber. Most of all it's a place where a bunch of kids, (who knew next to nothing about publishing yearbooks), tried to put out something that they, and the entire school, will be proud of.

"What's The News Across The Nation, They Have Got The Information . . . "

Poor Richards' Almanac

A new look came to the Plymouth Hi-Lights this year as the staff attempted to improve on past years journalism efforts. Besides presenting the school news, polls were run on politics, and student and teacher attitudes. The inquiring reporter sought views on everything from Nixon to Santa Claus. Record reviews, poetry, and 'Pok'in at Potpourri' type articles were the spice used to season the news at P.H.S.

Finding the news, from super-highways to basketball games, is the first step in setting up the paper. This must be followed by quality reporting, rewriting, headlines, kickers, and layouts. The Hi-Lights staff worked with this in mind and sought to make a good paper better.

Interest, skill, and a strong sense of resposibility are necessary to produce a paper worthy of reading. The staff hopes that you read their issues with enjoyment.

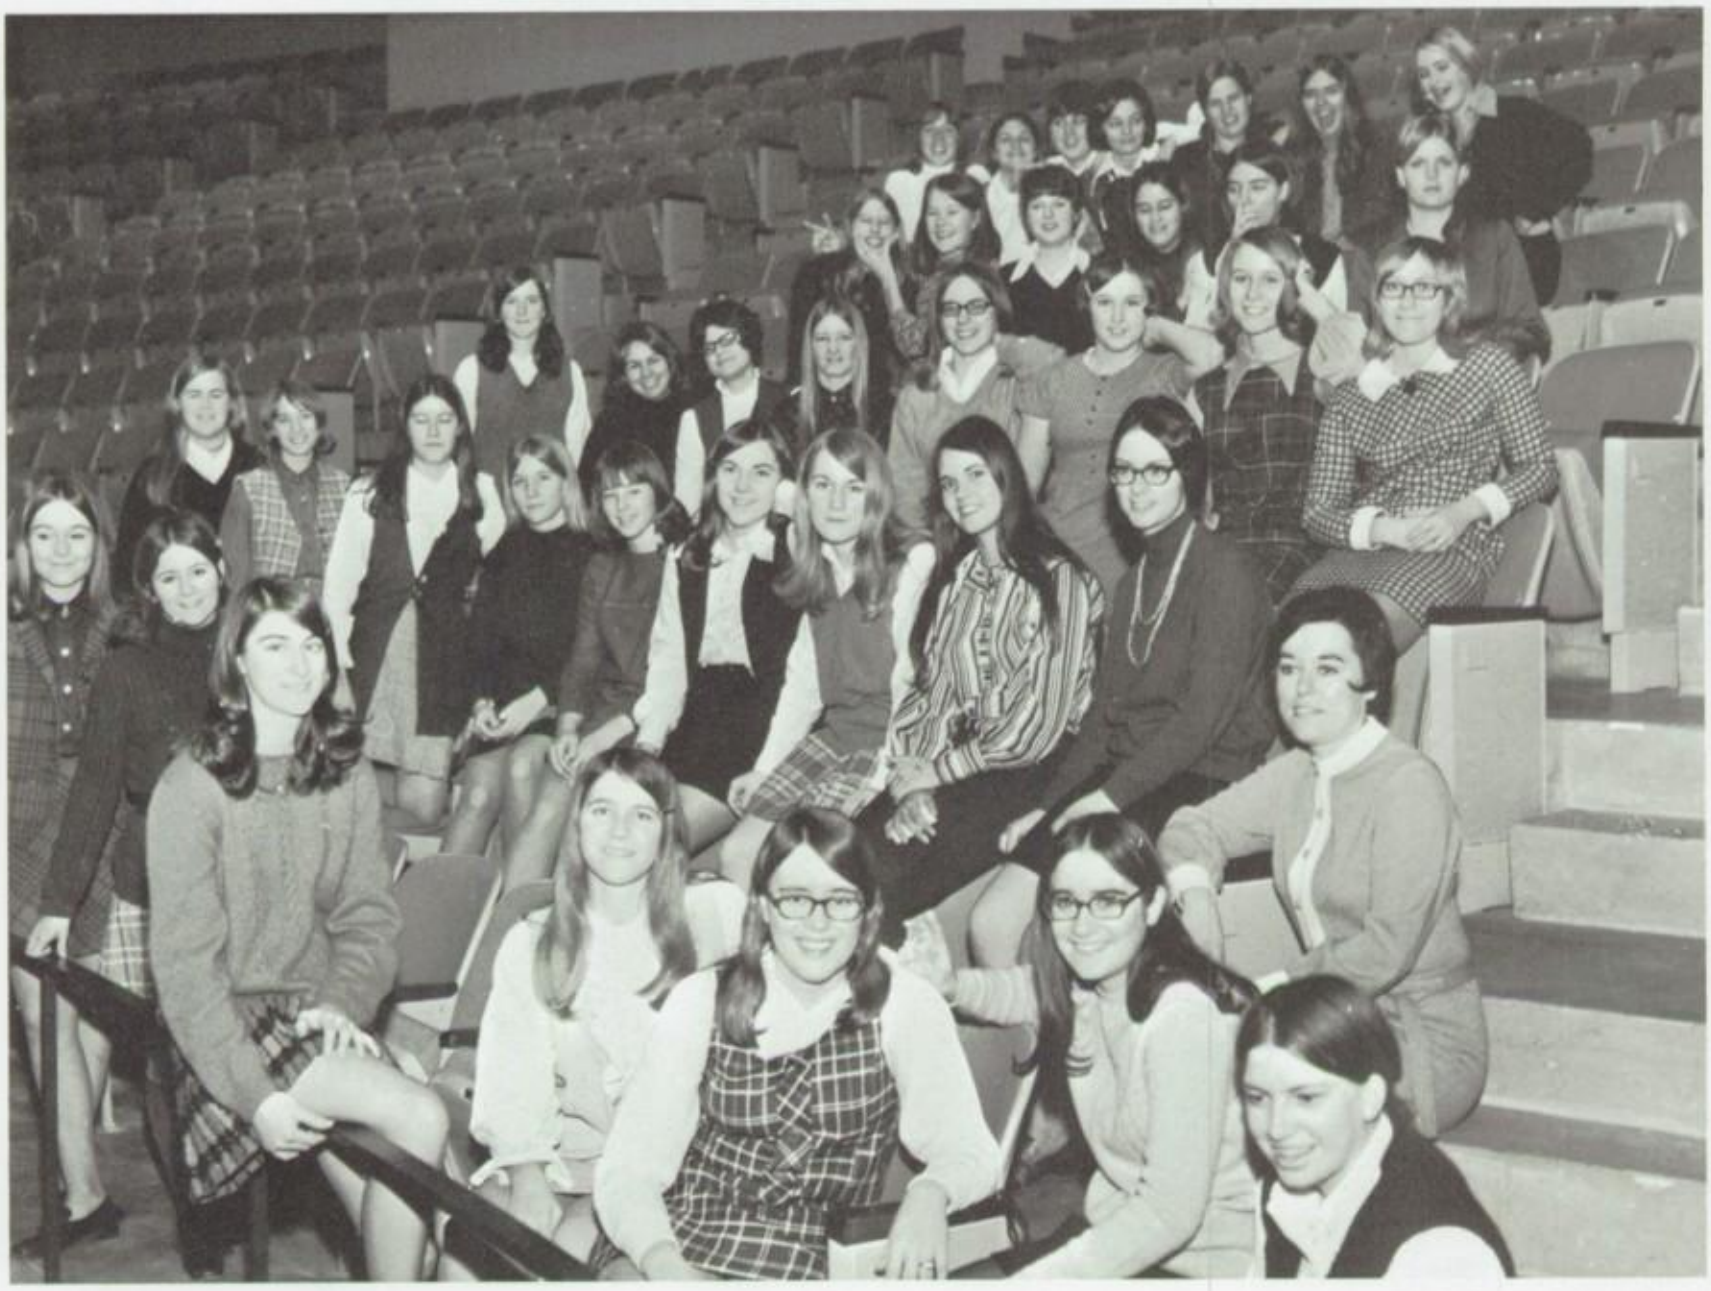
Hi - Y

Junior Tri-Hi-Y

Senior Tri-Hi-Y



Tri-Hi-Y is a Christian Service Organization. It is very worthwhile. It really does a lot for the sick and underpriveledged. The bad part is that the officers and the advisor have to plan and get everything ready. Members could be more willing to help. When members are told to do something such as making favors it gets done only after many complaints about it. The members should give more ideas and suggestions. Discipline is often a problem at meetings, but since the membership is so large, not much can be done about this. On the whole I enjoyed being an officer of Tri-Hi-Y and feel that it is a very good organization.

Rita Blanke

Student Council

Student Council, being the governing group for the student body, is a very effective and essential group. Through the Student Council students can obtain certain privileges or services in an organized fashion. Primarily the council is an organizing-group but it has many other functions.

Up until three years ago the council consisted of two members from each homeroom which totaled up to approximately seventy people. As can be expected it was mass chaos. There were probably twenty people in there with the right intentions and ambitions and about fifty involved for the purpose of having their picture in the annual. Since then the council has consisted of four elected members from each class and four officers. This smaller group has been very effective and usually quite organized. There are few discipline problems because of the smaller number and there is a lot of cooperation and fine work done.

Student Council, along with its other jobs, has organized a lot of special added attractions for the students. These include the senior lounge, the concession stand which is open to all students after school, and the annual "Ugly Man" contest. These are but a few of the council's services to the students. All in all I feel the Student Council program at P.H.S. is an excellent style of student government and I hope it continues to progress as it has in the past three years.

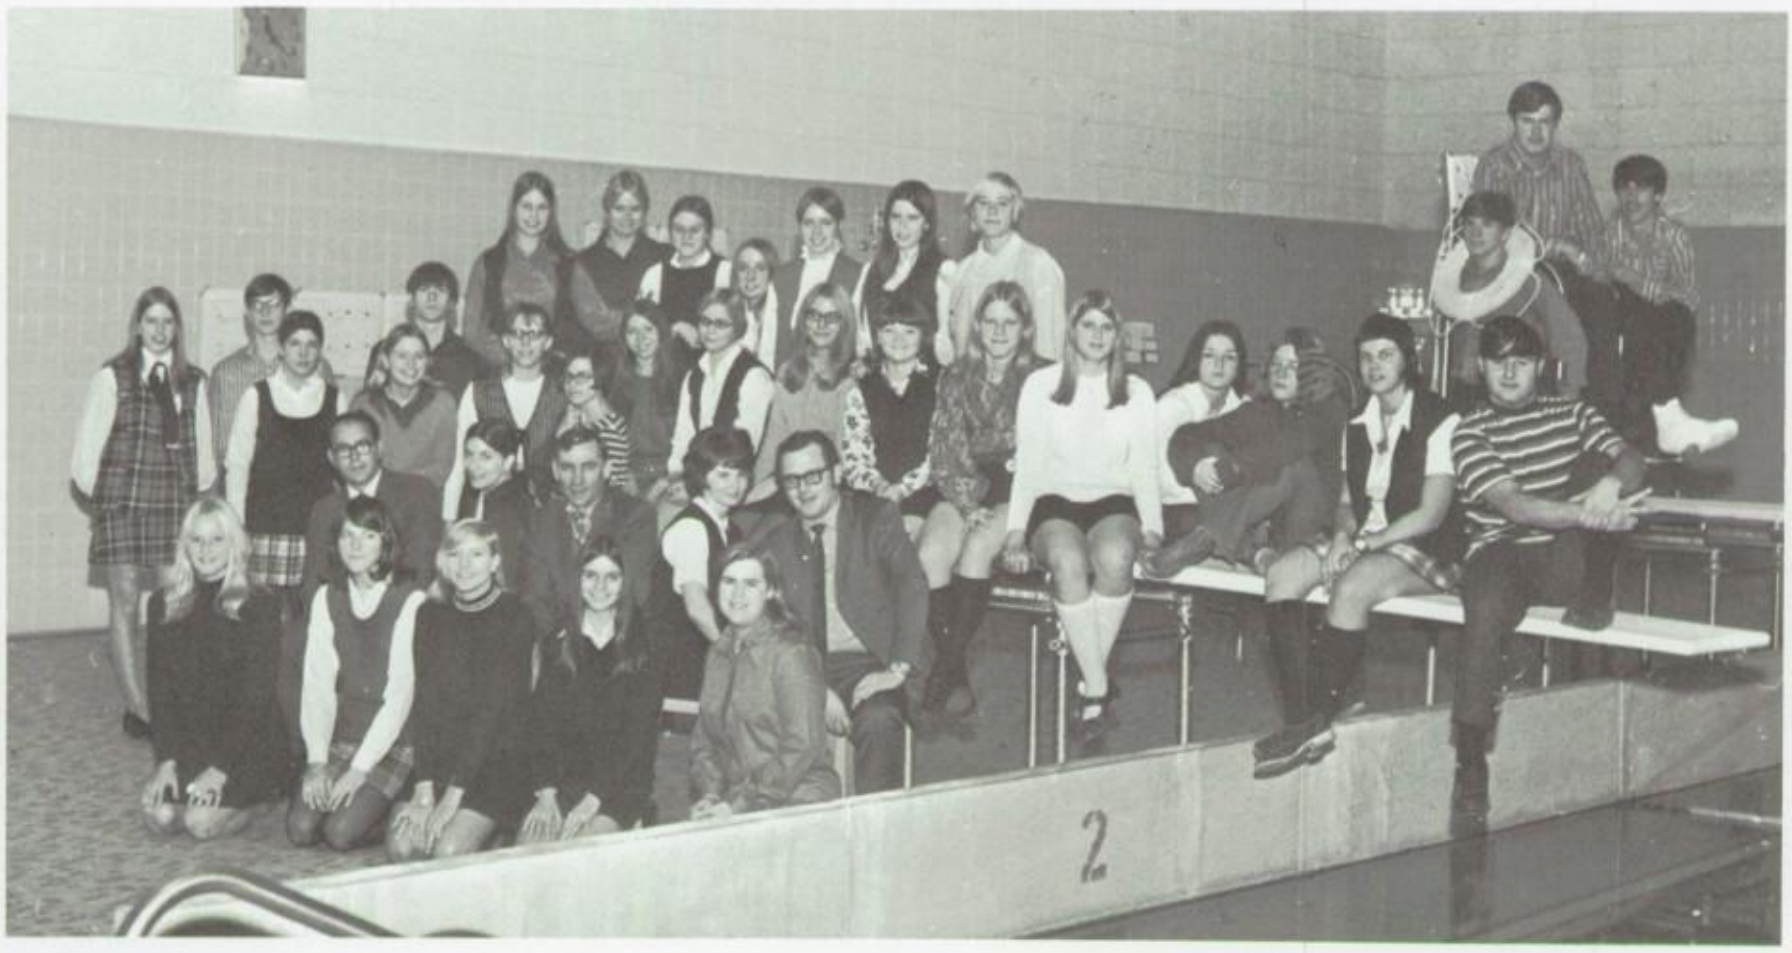
Sounding Board



Sounding Board was conceived by vice-principal Allen Linster, and it's purpose was to give students and teachers a place where they could air their complaints. Now in it's second year of existence, the Sounding Board has not caused any major policy or curriculum changes. The problems that come out at meetings are mostly petty, mainly personal, and not things that affect the student body as a whole.

The Sounding Board appears to be the administration's answer to the request by students to have a voice in what goes on at P.H.S. In other words, whenever the topic of student involvement comes up, the administration can say, " . . . well you've got the Sounding Board," when actually it isn't really that effective. Obviously, the way to improve this group is for the group to become more powerful. But this power must be a combined effort by faculty and students. Both sides must become more receptive and understanding.

National Honor Society

There is a club in this school that has a reputation for not doing very much. Meetings are held about once a month, dues don't always get collected, and activities are few. But the club in question is really not a club---it's National Honor Society.

Though it's not very famous during most of the year, in May things really begin to happen. Some time in that month an assembly is held. A sense of mystery and suppressed excitement is held throughout the whole assembly for three reasons: 1) There is always a faint chance you may be "tapped"; 2) The lights are out; 3) Juniors and Seniors constantly peer up toward the balcony wondering if their parents are up there; (That is if their parents can keep that all-important secret).

I have to admit my Mom did a pretty good job last year. She deserved an academy award. When I got tapped I nearly fell off the seat.

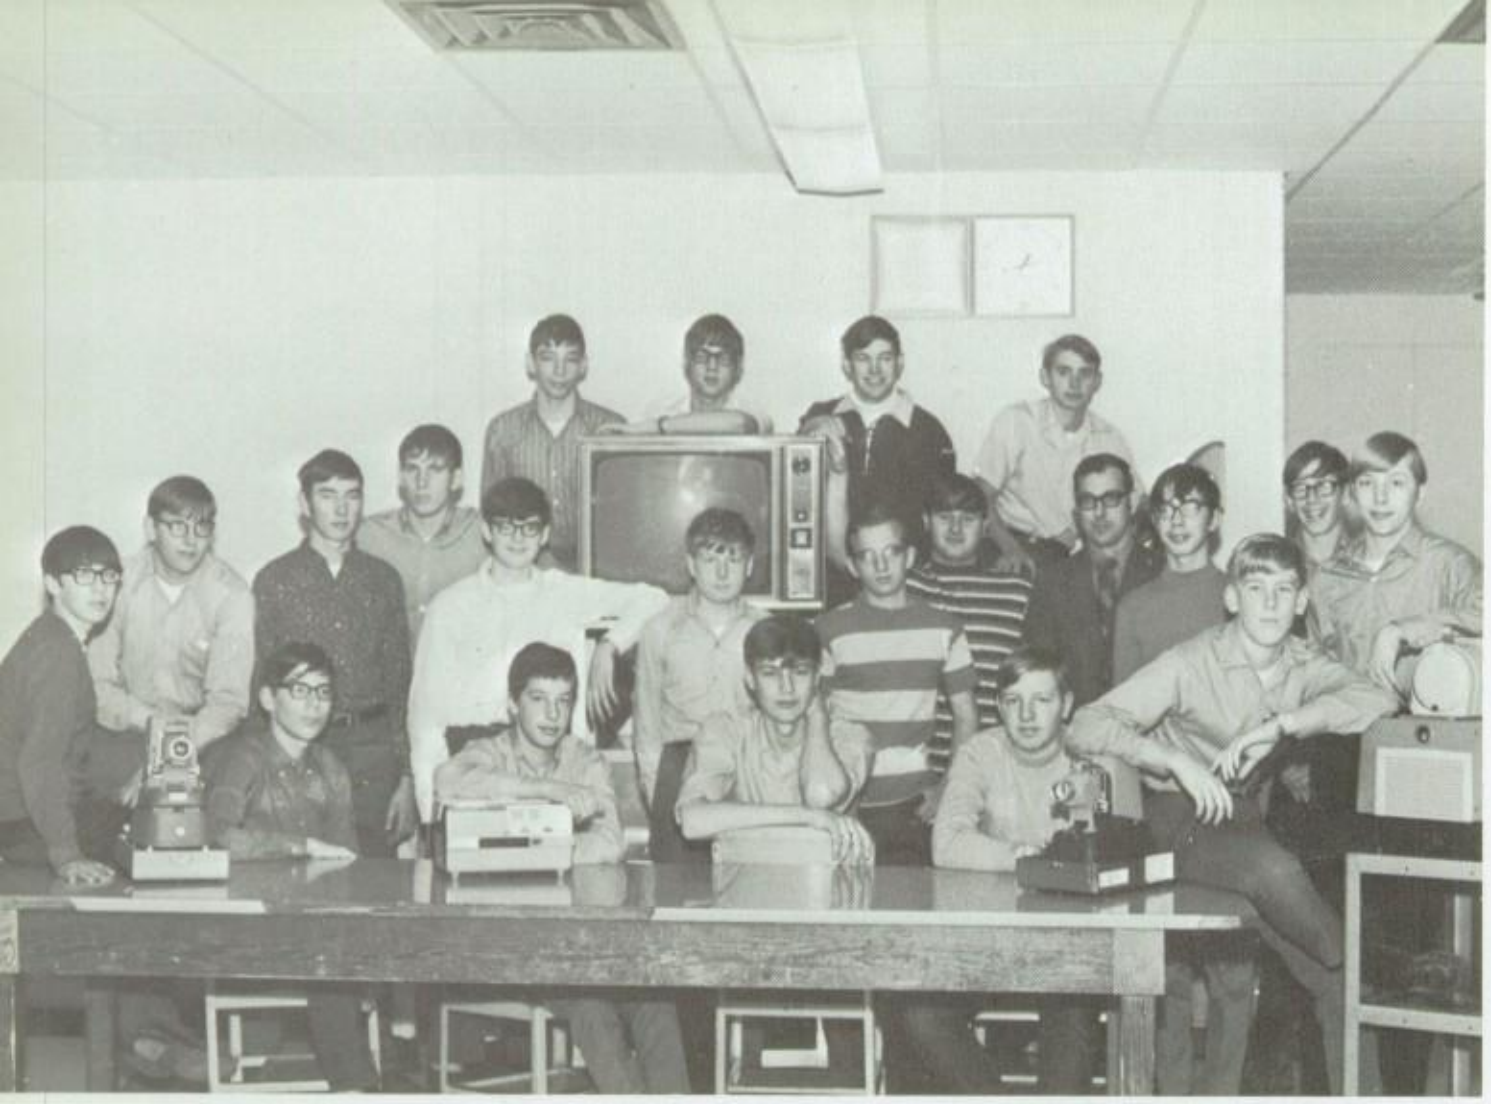
Chess Club

Chess Club is an intellectual group? Well actually it's a club in P.H.S. that meets once a week in the physics room. It consists of twelve students and one advisor, namely Mr. Olson. The members learn how to use new openings, record moves, and develop new methods of achieving checkmate. It is definitely a game that takes quite a lot of concentration and skill. The club has existed for approximately four years in P.H.S. and has been steadily increasing in popularity.



Projection Club

In my opinion the projection staff is one of the most interesting organizations in P.H.S. It is rewarding in the sense that you gain valuable knowledge in the operation of equipment and you get to view many interesting films. If you qualify, you may receive a letter at the end of two years of service to the staff.

Library Club

There are many reasons why girls become student librarians. Some feel the humanitarian need to help their fellow students. Some join so they won't get kicked out of the library. Others join so they don't have to pay overdue fees. But most girls join because of all the parties!

Student librarians are a great service to P.H.S. Besides checking out books, they take around the study hall slips to make sure no one gets marked absent. They also manage to put books away in the wrong place.

The reason students are not permitted to pick out their own magazines is "because they get so mixed up," said Mrs. Paske. "We have enough trouble as it is."

The truth is that the student librarians have the magazines so mixed that laymen would be unable to find what they wanted. The librarians have their own special filing system . . .

Glee Club

The number of girls who enrolled in Glee Club this year was so great that it had to be divided into a number of different sections. However they worked on the same material and got together for both the Christmas Concert and the Spring Concert. For both of the concerts the Glee Club teamed up with the mixed chorus for really impressive shows. The girls displayed their enthusiasm and hard work by giving two outstanding performances.

On the first day of band practice, Mr. Lehman started out with his usual proclamation of how this year was going to be different from other years. The older members looked at each other and laughed because he made this same statement every year

But band wasn't quite the same this year. We had lost some good musicians including Dave Linster, Frank Gatyas, and Gordy Vick. Maybe they weren't the best musicians but they were definitely part of the band.

This year the basketball tournaments were held here. Because the contest was held at our school, Mr. Lehman and the band worked hard to achieve a good performance. As usual they also performed for Homecoming and the Spring Concert.

Kippers

Kippers is a hard working swim club consisting of forty members. This year, on January 16, we hosted a state swimming workshop which was run by the members of the Sincopaters from Wisconsin State University — River Falls.

Our show this year was held on April 1,2 and 3. The theme of the show was "The Greatest Splash on Earth". It consisted of numbers pertaining to a circus. The acts included such things as clowns, lions, acrobats, tightrope walkers, and bare-back riders. Our ring master, Mr. Greenwald, hosted a very successful show.

Sandy Galloway

Drama Club

Drama Club's main purpose is to interest students in the theater. On January 2, twenty-five members went to Milwaukee to see the musical "1776" at the Performing Arts Center. Drama Club also sponsored an evening of one-act plays on February 3. The plays included "Tale of Chelm" directed by Patty Ardell, "Last Gasps" directed by Cathy Wifler, and "The Bald Soprano" directed by Joan Capelle. This was the first time the students directed a play entirely by themselves.

The club has been very active this year, and hopefully it will continue to be active and successful in the future years.

Pantherettes

Pantherettes is a girl's drill team which performs numerous times a year. In some ways, I think the group leaves something to be desired. The girls who try out for Pantherettes in the spring are supposedly willing to give up some of their time for practices. But by the time fall comes around, much of this willingness disappears. Some of the girls chronically complain when they are asked to come to rehearsals one night a week, and for a few hours on Sunday afternoon. At the rehearsals, many of those who come are yelling at each other over every little detail of the routine.

A lack of enthusiasm by some of the girls is apparent, but this is not the fault of the advisor or the co-captains who obviously do their best. Rather, it's the fault of the girls themselves.

But in spite of these problems, the Pantherettes should be congratulated for the very fine performances which add much spirit and color to the events in which they participate.

The Guidance Department of Phymouth High School provides student services in the areas of: (1) counseling, (2) student appraisal, (3) referral, (4) educational and occupational planning, and (5) research.

These services are made available to all students — the effectiveness of the department being dependent upon the attitude and understanding the student has of the counselor's role. An example of this might be the common misconception that the counselor functions only to change student programs. It would appear that more satisfaction from counseling services will develop with increased student involvement and self-referral for these services.

In aiding the individual student in his personal and social development, the department shares with other personnel a responsibility for helping young people become contributing citizens.

The mathematics program is designed to meet the needs of students of all interests and abilities. A multi-tracked curriculum based on vocational and academic requirements and student ability is offered. Students are able to change their plans and move from one track to another one. Students are provided skills and basic understandings necessary to exist in today's society and to design tomorrow's world.

In order to realistically prepare students for their future, two years of mathematics are required or its equivalent. An honors program exists for students who want to be challenged.

Students are encouraged to tutor other students and may volunteer their services as math. lab assistants.

Mildred Gausman
Dept. Head

The Science Department of Plymouth High School enjoys an excellent complex of well equipped rooms and facilities. Sequential course offerings of various levels throughout the four year high school program gives the students an opportunity for fine backgrounds and varied challenges in the sciences.

Constant evaluation and revision of the curricula continues to keep pace with educational needs and student interests. We hope that these revisions will further produce courses of independent study along with some short term courses to provide for more varied needs and vocational interests.

Our most pressing need would be to keep pace with the many advances in science and technology and with this progress to provide for the students additional and modern research equipment, audio visual media and other laboratory apparatus necessary for involving students in science.

Social Studies

Look to the future — But be careful of what you see.

All young people should be exposed to various social studies courses in order to better adjust to the needs of people living in the complex society of the twentieth century. They need to better understand man's relationship with himself, his environment and his fellow men. Young people need to know of the past and the present in order to make wise decisions in the future.

"oh, no!"

The greatest problem in today's society appears to be the "Communication Gap". This enormous problem is the foundation of most of the world's problems and could continue to hold back the quest for peace. We of the language arts department hope that we can continue to bridge this "gap" and work toward world peace.

Business Education

LEFT TO RIGHT: I. Christianson, J. Fromm, R. Grossman, D. Zvolena.

Get back to work, Ruthie.

Students enrolled in the secretarial and clerical practice classes are placed in office jobs throughout the community. They receive high school credit as well as compensation for their efforts.

Our Home Inside & Out

R. Knutson, Agriculture; N. Scheible, and L. Bryant, Home Economics; A. Linster, Horticulture.

Too often the Home Economics department is looked upon as the "stitch and stir" department and that is it. Our goal for the coming years is to "put Home Ec. on the map". One thing that we have to get across to the students is that it is not just cooking and sewing. We have a strong course in family living which can be taken by boys and girls which helps you to understand what life is all about. There are courses in Child Development, Interior design, Food Service, and of course an extensive program in Foods and Clothing. The enthusiasm of the boys in the classes is great and we are encouraging more and more their participation.

As far as changes are concerned, one item that I am considering is to do something with our "middle" room. I personally would like to see this as a "family living" room with regular lounge furniture, dining room table, etc. This would be a perfect room to hold meetings, teas, dinners, and, of course, the family living classes.

One item that I must mention is that we have been very fortunate in getting the things we have wanted so far this year. I think the school is interested in our department and very willing to help us strengthen it.

Nancy Scheible

Horticulture is a two semester course designed for the student to learn about the selection, care, and management of lawns, flower gardens, orchards, trees, and shrubs. This includes learning of skills in the use of chemicals, fertilizer, soil testing materials, and greenhouse equipment. Students plan, plant, and care for three flower gardens.

Sod, fruit and tree plots are part of the ten acre out door laboratory. Starting in the spring of 1971 students will also operate a greenhouse.

Allen Linster

W. Dahl, E. Haucke, S. Soper, G. Vance, M. Rechling, M. Paulson.

Many suggestions for change in educational institutions are being called for by the citizens of this country — some are well thought out and others only indicate items of concern. The Board of Education has been aware of the need for changes and that these changes must be evaluated in light of sound planning. This board is also responsible for financing on-going programs and new innovations as well as some of the more dramatic changes.

Citizens of Plymouth have expressed their willingness to support a dynamic ever changing program for educating the students of this community. It was therefore necessary to plan a comprehensive educational program.

Students may select an increasingly greater number of educational programs in line with their career objectives, with some assurance that the training will be made available when need is shown.

One such program offering is currently being implemented and is embodied in our vocational-technical curriculums. Extensive facilities have been provided as well as competent staff members to promote a growing educational thrust toward providing an educational experience to a body of students who have technical-level education goals. This is a program designed to incorporate general education subjects, technically related educational experiences in school, coordinated with work-experience programs in the community whenever possible.

The Plymouth vocational technical program has curriculum offering for students in the following areas: agriculture, business education, distributive education, trades and industry, and home economics. This year approximately 30% of our seniors are enrolled in this educational program. The vocational technical program can be expanded to include other areas of training if students can provide evidence that there is a need.

May we add that the staff is willing to promote programs for students enrolled in the college prepatory curriculum. We are flexible enough to work on a group or independent study basis.

Our desire is to provide excellence and flexibility in education at Plymouth. We are asking students to think seriously now about making the most of the comprehensive educational programs available to them. Preparing for your future is a cooperative venture involving community, school, parents, and the students themselves.

The Fine Arts

R. Stoll, CHORUS AND GLEE CLUB; R. Lehman, Band; and B. Howdle, Art.

To state what has been done in art this year is difficult, for it is quite varied. In Art I composition, design, drawing, lettering, and other basics were taught. Art II continued design and drawing but added projects such as oil painting, art history, and ceramics. Art III and IV dealt with individual study in Batik, silk-screening, leather, copper ceramics, drawing, and painting.

So far this year I've been presenting a wide range of mediums to give an art student a wider understanding of art as well as the world around. My objective is to set a visual as well as a literary understanding of how an individual can express his ideas or feelings. To express one's self he must know many ways so that he can find expression more conducive to his needs.

The beginning of art is line, form, shape, color, texture, balance, and rythm. That's what started in the art department — a beginning!

Seniors

Class of '71

CLASS COLORS: Imperial purple and white
FLOWER: White rose
MOTTO: "We've only just begun."

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Lois Faas, treasurer; Lori Greisch, secretary; Kay Hand, vice-president; Chester Bilgo, president.

It all started four years ago on September 3, 1967. The bell has rung, school has started, and the class of 1971 has started the four most wonderful years of its life: years of football, basketball, and baseball games, wrestling, tennis, and track meets. They were years of musicals and one act plays, of taking college entrance exams, and best of all, making new friends.

Remember that day in September when it all started? Maybe not, but there is one day you might remember, June 3, 1971 — Graduation day. The music has begun and you start to march in. Yes, those four years have gone by fast.

Some of us are planning on going on to school, some into the Armed Forces, and others are going to go to work and settle down. Some haven't made up their minds as to what they're going to do, but it's too late now. School is over. Those years of being in plays, going to Junior Prom and Homecoming are over. It's all over and there is no turning back.

You have received your diploma and are singing the Alma Mater. Tears are coming to your eyes and you are still hoping that it isn't true. But it is. It's all over and the only thing you can do, is say good by to the friends that you have made in the last four years and to the faculty members who have guided you in the right direction. But most of all, to good old PHS for giving us the most fabulous years of our lives and turning out the best class that has ever graduated from Plymouth High School.

There is just one thing I would like to say to the Class of '71 and that is good by to the best bunch of friends I ever met.

Once again, good by and good luck to all of you.

The management and employees of Lauer's Super Mart in Plymouth would like to thank you for your loyal patronage for over 50 years of business. We hope that you feel that this is your market . . . because actually it is you, our customers, who have built it into the FINEST COMPLETELY HOME-OWNED AND OPERATED SUPER MARKET in Sheboygan County.

We would like you to know that all of the folks who are employed here use their earnings and profits to help develop the immediate community. None of their salaries or profits leave the state of Wisconsin.

May we again give you our personal "thank you" . . . you more than deserve it! — Joe Abstetar, Deloris Bennet and the Lauer's Super Mart Employees.

THESE MERCHANTS BACKED US.... BACK THEM!

Thank You

The staff of the 1971 Quit Qui Oc would like to express their gratitude to the following people for their help in compiling this year's annual.

Mr. Bill Stadler
Mr. Roger M. Crocker
Mr. Tom Jenz
Mr. Jerad Lehmann
The Review

Also special thanks to the administration, faculty, and student body for their tolerance with our antics.
